MIDRAND, South Africa--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MiX Telematics Limited (NYSE: MIXT, JSE: MIX), a leading global provider of fleet and mobile asset management solutions delivered as Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), today announced the appointment of Ken Jackson as Senior Vice President of Global Sales.

"I am very excited to have landed Ken for this new global role. Ken brings tremendous experience running global sales efforts including aligning sales execution with strategy. We look forward to his contributions in leveraging our success in vertical markets to new regions and opening new geographies as well," said Stefan Joselowitz, Chief Executive Officer of MiX Telematics.

"MiX Telematics has a world-class reputation for excellence delivering cloud-based fleet management solutions and has enjoyed an increase in visibility over the past couple of years," said Jackson. "It is exactly the right time to begin capitalizing on this hard work with a more systematic global effort, and I couldn't be more pleased with the opportunity to roll up my sleeves and contribute."

Jackson brings 27 years of technology sales and sales management experience to MiX. Prior to joining MiX, Ken served as President - Americas for Austrian-based UC4 Software, a private-equity backed maker of business process automation solutions. Under Ken's leadership, his team grew new license revenues an average of 22% annually, and enjoyed an unprecedented period of growth and profitability. Ken was the catalyst for the development of sales best practices and methodologies in the Americas landing blue chip customers, NIKE, ADP, Fidelity Investments, and Cardinal Health to mention a few. Prior to UC4, Ken served as Senior Vice President of North American Sales at ASG Software Solutions where he grew the sales team from 30 to well over 100 and averaged more than 30% annual license growth. Prior to ASG, Ken served in sales and sales leadership roles at CA Technologies and IBM.
