

Silicon Labs Ranked the Best Place to Work

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--July 7, 2008--Silicon Laboratories Inc. (Nasdaq: SLAB), a leader in high-performance, analog-intensive, mixed-signal ICs, today announced that for the third consecutive year, it ranked in the top ten best places to work in Central Texas and ranked number one among large technology companies. The honor was awarded as a result of an independent survey hosted by the Austin Business Journal.

Silicon Labs prides itself on being a company that strives for excellence in all aspects of its business from product development and customer support to financial performance. The employees' commitment to the business contributed to the company's record revenue and earnings, far outpacing the industry. The company is also delivering a record number of innovative new solutions that enhance end products consumers use every day such as portable navigation devices, cellular handsets and portable medical devices.

Silicon Labs' ability to attract premier talent across the organization can be attributed to challenging and interesting work and the company's dedication to a culture of mutual respect and shared values. This is reflected in the high survey scores where Silicon Labs employees ranked team effectiveness and trust in coworkers as two of the most-valued aspects of the company. This helps to drive the winning culture of Silicon Labs and is one of the largest contributors to its commercial success.

"We have a great team at Silicon Labs and I'm proud to be a part of it," said Necip Sayiner, president and CEO of Silicon Laboratories. "At Silicon Labs we are all focused on building a strong company founded on values that underlie everything we do. From our inception, the employees have embraced an environment of accountability, a focus on the customer, a culture of innovation and a drive to win."

Silicon Laboratories' employees are committed to the company's core values, which include open and transparent communication, continuous innovation, refusal to compromise on the quality of talent, a collaborative work environment, a desire to win and a dedication to commercial success. Commitment to these values and solid execution in all aspects, are helping Silicon Laboratories to build a lasting leadership position in the industry.
