

Silicon Laboratories Ranked Among the Best Places to Work

AUSTIN, Texas--(BUSINESS WIRE)--July 3, 2007--Silicon Laboratories Inc. (Nasdaq:SLAB), a leader in high-performance, analog-intensive, mixed-signal ICs, today announced that for the second consecutive year, it ranked in the top ten best places to work in Central Texas and ranked number one among large technology companies. The honor was awarded as a result of an independent survey hosted by the Austin Business Journal.

The Best Places to Work rankings are based on employee survey responses to questions related to team effectiveness, alignment with goals, trust in co-workers, individual contribution, management effectiveness, trust in senior leaders, feeling valued, work engagement and people practices.

"At Silicon Labs we believe our success has as much to do with our winning culture as our product strategy," said Necip Sayiner, president and CEO of Silicon Laboratories. "Our people represent many of the best and brightest in their respective fields and as a result, we've been able to sustain a culture of innovation as we've grown."

Silicon Laboratories' employees are committed to the company's core values, which include open and transparent communication, continuous innovation, refusal to compromise on the quality of talent, a collaborative work environment, a desire to win and a dedication to commercial success.
