Based on information available at the time of this posting, a portion of the distributions made during 2021 are a non-dividend distribution and treated as a return of capital. A return of capital will be applied against the shareholder’s basis under Internal Revenue Code 301(c)(2).

The quarterly distribution of cash is characterized as a taxable dividend to the extent it comes out of the corporation's earnings and profits generated during the current year or accumulated from prior years. The part of the distribution that exceeds current and accumulated earnings and profits is treated as a non-taxable return of capital which reduces the shareholder’s adjusted basis in the stock.

If the distribution exceeds the stock basis, the excess is treated as capital gain.
