All Directors Re-elected, Advisory Vote on Executive Compensation Approved, All Board Vote Recommendations Supported

SAN FRANCISCO--(BUSINESS WIRE <sup>[1]</sup>)--McKesson Corporation (NYSE:MCK) today announced preliminary voting results from its Annual Meeting of Stockholders, held earlier today in Irving, Texas. All directors were re-elected, the non-binding advisory vote on executive compensation was approved, and all Board vote recommendations were supported.

"On behalf of our Board and management team, we appreciate the continued support of our shareholders," said John H. Hammergren, chairman and chief executive officer, McKesson Corporation. "We greatly value our shareholders' perspective and we are committed to actively engaging with them as we work to deliver long-term value for customers and investors."

The shareholder vote announced today is considered preliminary until the final results are tabulated and certified by the independent inspector of election. The final results will be reported on a Form 8-K that will be filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission shortly.
