ORGANIGRAM MAKES KEY HIRE TO ADVANCE OILS AND EXTRACTS DIVISION

MONCTON, NB – JANUARY 13th, 2017 – Licensed medical marijuana producer Organigram Holdings Inc. (“Organigram” or the “Company”) (TSX VENTURE: OGI) (OTCQB: OGRMF) is pleased to announce the addition of Michel Robichaud to its Senior Management Team. Mr. Robichaud will join Organigram as of January 30th, 2017, as Director of Edibles & Extraction, a key role in the company’s leadership vision within the Canadian cannabis landscape.

Mr. Robichaud brings a wide breadth of experience to the company as a formally trained chemist with over 20 years of senior business leadership experience. Most recently, he had led projects of an international scope with JD Irving, and has managed laboratory operations with International mining company Rio Tinto. As a black belt certified professional, Mr. Robichaud has led development projects fully leveraging the benefits of lean, six sigma & Theory of Constraint systems.

“This positon is a critical strategic pillar as it leads a team working closely with TGS Colorado, our partner in extract development,” says Denis Arsenault, CEO of Organigram. “Michel’s experience and professionalism will help us ensure competitive advantage, allowing us to leverage the experience of TGS and get to market faster.”

“Our recent land purchase and focus on this opportunity communicates a clear strategy on extract and edible manufacturing as it relates to the legalisation of recreational marijuana. We’re ecstatic about Mr. Robichaud joining the team and feel it’s one more step in ensuring Organigram does the groundwork now to ensure full preparedness for the recreational marketplace,” added Arsenault.

Following the recently announced expansion plans, Mr. Robichaud will lead the design, build and implementation stages of a new state-of-the-art facility for allowable edible products under what is currently being established as Canada’s recreational framework for Cannabis.
