

ORGANIGRAM RECEIVES INCREASED LICENSE CAPACITY

Moncton, N.B. April 13, 2015 – OrganiGram Holdings Inc. (TSX-V: OGI) (OTC US:OGRMF) (the “Company”) is pleased to announce that further to receiving an annual renewal to its license last week, the Company has subsequently been granted an increase in license capacity to both grow and sell marijuana under the Marijuana for Medical Purposes Regulations (MMPR).

The new capacity allows for Organigram to sell 600kg of medical marijuana over the next 12-month period.

Additionally, Organigram recently completed the construction of 4 new growing rooms and is currently awaiting inspection by Health Canada. Once the growing rooms are inspected and approved, Organigram will submit amendments to Health Canada to further increase the capacity to grow and sell. The Company anticipates the rooms being approved and integrated into the production cycle by the middle of May 2015.
