

ResMed Joins MedTech Europe

As a world leader in sleep and respiratory medical devices and connected health solutions, ResMed is honored to be a part of this elite industry advocacy organization that acts as a common voice for advancing medical technology and patient access to safe and effective products.

BRUSSELS - 25 January 2018 - ResMed today announced its membership in MedTech Europe, a trade association whose mission is to make innovative medical technology and connected health solutions available to more people, while helping healthcare systems move toward a sustainable path.

MedTech Europe represents roughly 26,000 businesses in the world's second largest medtech market, estimated at €110 billion ($120 billion) in 2015. The trade association maximizes patients' access to and use of health-improving, cost-saving medical innovations through:

- Promoting health economics research to show the benefits of medtech; and
- Helping shape pro-medtech policies by directly engaging European Union regulators, politicians and other decision-makers.

ResMed, the world's healthcare leader in remote patient monitoring with a range of cloud-connected sleep and respiratory care devices sold in Europe, has 11 employees serving on 15 MedTech Europe committees.
