ABOUT THE HARTFORD

The Hartford is a leader in property and casualty insurance, group benefits and mutual funds. With more than 200 years of expertise, The Hartford is widely recognized for its service excellence, sustainability practices, trust and integrity.

OUR HISTORY

- Babe Ruth purchased a policy from The Hartford in 1920 for protection against disability.
- The Hartford's trademark logo echoes the majestic stag depicted in Sir Edwin Landseer's 1851 painting Monarch of the Glen. A hart fording a stream is a natural symbol for a company named The Hartford.
- The Hartford provided insurance for the only home Abraham Lincoln ever owned.
- Since 1947, more than 111 million children have been deputized as part of the company's Junior Fire Marshal® program – one of the oldest corporate-sponsored public education programs in the country.

The Golden Gate Bridge opened in 1937. Construction of the bridge was bonded by The Hartford.
