Safe Harbor Statement

Forward-Looking Statements: This presentation contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of federal securities laws, including, among others, statements about our expectations, plans, strategies or prospects. We generally use the words “may,” “will,” “expect,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “plan,” “estimate,” “project,” “assume,” “guide,” “target,” “forecast,” “see,” “seek,” “can,” “should,” “could,” “would,” “intend,” “predict,” “potential,” “strategy,” “is confident that,” “future,” “opportunity,” “work toward,” and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical or current fact are, or may be deemed to be, forward-looking statements. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs, expectations and assumptions of management and are subject to significant risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that could cause actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we disclaim any intention or obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Readers of this presentation are cautioned not to rely on these forward-looking statements, since there can be no assurance that these forward-looking statements will prove to be accurate. This cautionary statement is applicable to all forward-looking statements contained in this presentation. The risks and uncertainties that may cause actual results to differ materially from Masimo’s current expectations are more fully described in Masimo’s reports filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including our most recent Form 10-K and Form 10-Q. Copies of these filings, as well as subsequent filings, are available online at www.sec.gov, www.masimo.com or upon request.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures: The non-GAAP financial measures contained herein are a supplement to the corresponding financial measures prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. The non-GAAP financial measures presented exclude certain items that are more fully described in the Appendix. Management believes that adjustments for these items assist investors in making comparisons of period-to-period operating results. Furthermore, management also believes that these items are not indicative of the Company’s on-going core operating performance. These non-GAAP financial measures have certain limitations in that they do not reflect all of the costs associated with the operations of the Company’s business as determined in accordance with GAAP. Therefore, investors should consider non-GAAP financial measures in addition to, and not as a substitute for, or as superior to, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP. The non-GAAP financial measures presented by the Company may be different from the non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. The Company has presented the following non-GAAP financial measures to assist investors in understanding the Company’s core net operating results on an on-going basis: non-GAAP revenue (constant currency), non-GAAP revenue (constant currency), non-GAAP revenue growth (constant currency), non-GAAP gross profit/margin %, non-GAAP SG&A expense, non-GAAP R&D expense, non-GAAP litigation settlements and awards, non-GAAP impairment charge, non-GAAP operating expense %, non-GAAP operating profit/margin %, non-GAAP non-operating income (expense), non-GAAP provision for income taxes, non-GAAP net income (loss), non-GAAP net income (loss) per share. These non-GAAP financial measures may also assist investors in making comparisons of the company’s core operating results with those of other companies. Management believes these non-GAAP financial measures are important in the evaluation of the Company’s performance and uses these measures to better understand and evaluate our business. For additional financial details, including GAAP to non-GAAP reconciliations, please visit the Investor Relations section of the Company’s website at www.investor.masimo.com to access Supplementary Financial Information.

Forward-Looking Non-GAAP Financial Measures: This presentation also includes certain forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures. We calculate forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures based on internal forecasts that omit certain amounts that would be included in GAAP financial measures. For instance, we exclude the impact of certain charges related to acquisitions, integrations, divestitures and related costs; business transition and related costs; litigation related expenses and settlements; realized and unrealized gains or losses; tax related adjustments; and other adjustments. We have not provided quantitative reconciliations of these forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable forward-looking GAAP financial measures because the excluded items are not available on a prospective basis without unreasonable efforts. For example, the timing of certain transactions is difficult to predict because management’s plans may change. In addition, the Company believes such reconciliations would imply a degree of precision and certainty that could be confusing to investors. It is probable that these forward-looking non-GAAP financial measures may be materially different from the corresponding GAAP financial measures.

Tariff and Mitigation Update | 2025 Guidance Framework

- Our updated guidance⁽¹⁾ incorporates a $17 to $19 million increase to cost of sales for fiscal 2025, which represents a 120 to 130 basis point impact to operating margin and a 25 cent impact to EPS.
- Given that tariff costs are capitalized into inventory and then recognized as products are sold, we expect the impact of tariffs to increase each quarter over the remainder of the year.
- These estimates of tariff impact include mitigation measures implemented to-date, but do not include any future mitigation measures that we might implement.

	Mexico	Malaysia	China	Copper
Products subject to U.S. tariffs	Non-USMCA eligible products	All manufactured products	Patient cables	Raw materials
% of total cost of goods sold subject to U.S. tariffs	2%	18%	4%	0% - 4%
New tariff rates implied in guidance	30%	19%	34% ⁽²⁾	50%
