Safe Harbor Statement & Non-GAAP Measures

Statements in this presentation contain “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, including information regarding the Company’s financial outlook, future plans, objectives, business prospects and anticipated financial performance. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as “will,” “believe,” “anticipate,” “expect,” “estimate,” “intend,” “plan,” or variations of these words, or similar expressions. These forward-looking statements are neither historical facts nor assurances of future performance. Instead, they are based only on the Company’s current beliefs, expectations and assumptions regarding the future of our business, future plans and strategies, projections, anticipated events and trends, the economy and other future conditions. Because forward-looking statements relate to the future, these statements inherently involve a wide range of uncertainties, risks and changes in circumstances that are difficult to predict and many of which are outside of our control. The Company’s actual actions, results, and financial condition may differ materially from what is expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements.

Specific factors that could cause such a difference on our business, financial position, results of operations and/or liquidity include, without limitation, raw material availability, increases in raw material costs, or other production costs; risks associated with our strategic growth initiatives or the failure to achieve the anticipated benefits of such initiatives; unanticipated downturn in business relationships with customers or their purchases; competitive pressures on sales and pricing; changes in the markets for the Company’s business segments; changes in trends and demands in the markets in which the Company competes; operational problems at our manufacturing facilities or unexpected failures at those facilities; future economic and financial conditions in the United States and around the world, including the impacts of U.S. and foreign tariff policies; inability of the Company to meet future capital requirements; claims, litigation and regulatory actions against the Company; changes in laws and regulations affecting the Company; unforeseen events, including natural disasters, unusual or severe weather events and patterns, public health crises, geopolitical crises, and other catastrophic events; our ability to successfully execute our announced intended divestiture of the Myers Tire Supply business; and other risks and uncertainties detailed from time to time in the Company’s filings with the SEC, including without limitation, the risk factors disclosed in Item 1A, “Risk Factors,” in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025. Given these factors, as well as other variables that may affect our operating results, readers should not rely on forward-looking statements, assume that past financial performance will be a reliable indicator of future performance, nor use historical trends to anticipate results or trends in future periods. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date thereof. The Company expressly disclaims any obligation or intention to provide updates to the forward-looking statements and the estimates and assumptions associated with them.

The Company uses certain non-GAAP measures in this presentation. Adjusted operating income (loss), adjusted operating income margin, adjusted earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (EBITDA), adjusted EBITDA margin, adjusted net income, adjusted earnings per diluted share (adjusted EPS), and free cash flow are non-GAAP financial measures and are intended to serve as a supplement to results provided in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. Myers Industries believes that such information provides an additional measurement and consistent historical comparison of the Company’s performance. A reconciliation of the non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP measures is available in this news release.

| Vehicle                  | $20.5  | $25.4  | (19%) |

- Net sales increased 13% Y/Y excluding impact from exiting ~$5M low-margin products with idling of two rotational molding facilities in Q4 2025
- Gross margin increased due to volume and mix, price, and lower manufacturing costs while managing rising resin costs
- Adj. operating and EBITDA margins improved as we made significant progress improving our cost structure and reaping the benefits from our Focused Transformation

Balance Sheet and Cash Flow

- Cash balance of $47.6M combined with $244.7M of availability under the revolver, provides ample liquidity of $292.3M to support capital allocation priorities
- Net debt<sup>1</sup> reduced $21.2M Q/Q; net leverage lowered to 1.9x
- July 28: new $250M Revolving Credit Facility and $250M Term Loan (maturity 2031)
- Generated strong operating and free cash flow on higher net income and improved working capital management
- Working capital as a percent of sales decreased slightly due to an improved cash conversion cycle; continue to prioritize working capital management to improve cash flow metrics

Capital Allocation Priorities to Drive Shareholder Value

Balanced Framework That Supports Growth Investments and Returning Cash to Shareholders
Built on Foundation of Strong Balance Sheet with Ample Liquidity

GROWTH INVESTMENTS

Q2 capex was $5.6M with expectation that full-year capex will be near our target of 3.5% of revenue to fund organic growth

Open to opportunistic acquisitions aligned with growth platforms

Net leverage ratio target range of 1.5x to 2.5x

RETURNING CASH TO SHAREHOLDERS

Maintain dividend policy

Returned $33M to shareholders since beginning of 2025 through combination of dividends and share repurchases

Maintaining a Disciplined Capital Allocation Approach

Strong Infrastructure outlook is supported by accelerating utility spending and data center-related investment

Continue to see risks and opportunities for both revenue and margin

Geopolitical events impacting energy markets, affecting resin cost and supply

- Our resin availability not impacted due to secure supply
- Costs increasing due to escalated global pricing; we are taking pricing and other actions to mitigate impact

*Excludes impact from exiting low-margin products and idling two rotational molding facilities in Q4 2025. Businesses previously reported in Distribution segment that were not included in discontinued operations are now reported in Vehicle, Industrial, and Infrastructure

Items in this table may not recalculate due to rounding

(1) Income taxes are calculated using the normalized effective tax rate for each period. The rate used in 2026 is 25.5% and in 2025 is 26.0%.

(2) Adjusted income (loss) per diluted share from continuing operations is calculated using the weighted average common shares outstanding for the respective period.
