RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that Lisa Miles, Senior Vice President of Corporate Communications and Investor Relations, has been recognized as one of the nation's top investor relations professionals by Institutional Investor Magazine.

Institutional Investor is a leading global finance magazine and its yearly ranking of top professionals serves as a benchmark for excellence in the investor relations (IR) industry. More than 3,000 investors representing 45 different business sectors voted to name the top officials for 2017. IR programs across the United States were evaluated on six criteria, including accessibility of senior management, authoritative IR, transparency of financial reporting and more. Ms. Miles ranked third for Best Midcap IR Professionals in the Business, Education and Professional Services sector.

Since joining MAXIMUS in 2002, Ms. Miles has led the Company's investor relations strategy and articulated its long-term growth platform. A member of the MAXIMUS executive committee, Ms. Miles also oversees the development and direction of the long-term global communications strategies that support the organization's vision, mission and brand. In addition to investor relations, her areas of responsibility include corporate communications, marketing communications, branding and reputation management, and employee communications.

"On behalf of the MAXIMUS management team, we congratulate Lisa on this well-respected recognition. We applaud her efforts in working diligently with the sell-side analyst community and, of course, current and potential shareholders. Her strategic communications skills and deep understanding of the operations, financials and long-term fundamentals of MAXIMUS are at the heart of our goal to provide comprehensive, consistent and transparent communications with our investor base," commented MAXIMUS CEO Richard A. Montoni.
