RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that Richard Montoni, Chief Executive Officer, signed a Statement of Support for the Department of Defense Office of Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve (ESGR). Mr. Montoni signed the pledge in a ceremony at the MAXIMUS corporate offices in Reston, Virginia. He was joined by Captain Steve Knight, ESGR Director of National Operations and Plans.

With this Statement of Support, MAXIMUS joins other employers in pledging that:

- We fully recognize, honor and enforce the Uniformed Services Employment and Re-Employment Rights Act (USERRA).
- Our managers and supervisors will have the tools they need to effectively manage those employees who serve in the Guard and Reserve.
- We appreciate the values, leadership and unique skills service members bring to the workforce and will encourage opportunities to hire Guardsmen, Reservists and Veterans.
- We will continually recognize and support the United States' service members and their families in peace, in crises and in war.

"Supportive employers like MAXIMUS are critical to maintaining the readiness and strength of the nation's Guard and Reserve units and allow Guardsmen and Reservists the opportunity to serve our country more effectively and with greater peace of mind," said Steve Knight. "By signing this Statement of Support, MAXIMUS sends a clear message they stand committed to their military employees and recognize the integrity, global perspective and proven leadership they bring to the workplace."

"Our Statement of Support with the ESGR leadership reconfirms our commitment to hiring and honoring our nation's service members," commented Richard Montoni. "We believe that veterans bring a resiliency and dependability that greatly enhances our workforce and we value their unique skills and experiences."
