RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS (NYSE:MMS) announced today that John Boyer, PhD, President and General Manager of MAXIMUS Federal Services, has been appointed as Board Chairman of the MAXIMUS Charitable Foundation. Mr. Boyer succeeds, Lou Chappuie, Sr. who has retired after eight years of dedicated service. During his tenure, Mr. Chappuie led the Foundation's efforts to award more than $1 million in monetary grants to more than 225 non-profit organizations across the country.

Established in 2000, the MAXIMUS Foundation enables MAXIMUS to give back to local communities throughout the United States. The Foundation awards cash grants twice a year to programs aligned with its mission to help disadvantaged populations achieve self-sufficiency and personal growth. Funding is provided by MAXIMUS and its employees.

"In these difficult financial times, the work of the Foundation and the importance of charitable giving are even greater," said MAXIMUS CEO Richard Montoni. "We are deeply grateful for Lou's years of leadership, and I look forward to working with John in another capacity as the Foundation works to support charitable programs that provide critical services to disadvantaged families."

MAXIMUS is a leading provider of government services and is devoted to providing health and human services program management and consulting services to its clients. The Company has more than 6,000 employees located in more than 220 offices in the United States, Canada and Australia. Additionally, MAXIMUS is included in the Russell 2000 Index and the S&P SmallCap 600 Index.

Statements that are not historical facts, including statements about the Company's confidence and strategies and the Company's expectations about revenues, results of operations, profitability, future contracts, market opportunities, market demand or acceptance of the Company's products are forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. These uncertainties could cause the Company's actual results to differ materially from those indicated by such forward-looking statements and include reliance on government clients; risks associated with government contracting; risks involved in managing government projects; legislative changes and political developments; opposition from government unions; challenges resulting from growth; adverse publicity; and legal, economic, and other risks detailed in Exhibit 99.1 to the Company's most recent Quarterly Report filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission, found on www.maximus.com.
