RESTON, Va. & GALWAY, N.Y.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS, a leading provider of government services, announced today that Mark Andrekovich, Chief of Human Capital and President of the Tax and Employer Services Division, will present a concurrent session at the New York State Society for Human Resource Management Annual Conference with Geoffrey Dubiski, Principal and Managing Director of Sumner Grace & Associates.

The conference will be held on July 19, 2009 at the Turning Stone Resort in Verona, NY. Mr. Andrekovich and Mr. Dubiski will present an interactive session titled, "Human Resources IS About Business." Their presentation will outline key metrics and functions within Human Resources that provide value to an organization and provide examples of how to measure the return on investment from an area commonly thought of as a cost center. A link to conference information is available at www.nysshrm.org/stateconf.php.

"We are excited about the opportunity to discuss the linkage between work that human resource professionals perform and the direct implications to the top line of revenue or bottom line of shareholder value with human resource practitioners," commented Mr. Dubiski.

Mr. Andrekovich added, "Now more than ever, our expertise is needed in new and non-traditional ways to help our companies through these challenging economic times."
