- President of Health Services a Featured Panelist at AHIP Medicaid Conference -

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS, Inc. (NYSE:MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced that Bruce Caswell, President & General Manager of Health Services, will be a featured panelist at America's Health Insurance Plans (AHIP) health insurance exchange conference, "Medicaid's Role in the Health Insurance Exchange."

Mr. Caswell will participate in tomorrow's session, "Developing Infrastructure to Meet the Challenges of the Exchange." As part of a larger discussion about the essential elements for developing state infrastructure to support Exchanges, he will offer insights into how states can overcome strategic operational challenges and seamlessly integrate their existing Medicaid infrastructure and business processes within their Exchanges. Mr. Caswell will be joined on the panel by Randy Herman, Managing Director and CEO, DestinationRX.

"The coordination of administrative and operational functions between Exchanges and health plans - from initial and annual enrollment to ongoing customer service - will be critical to their success. States and health plans can draw on existing Medicaid infrastructure and business processes when planning for Exchange implementation," commented Mr. Caswell. "As a leading provider of administrative services for public health insurance programs, I'm pleased to have the opportunity to share our experience with key stakeholders preparing for the successful implementation of their Exchanges."

The "Medicaid's Role in the Health Insurance Exchange" conference is taking place September 15-16, 2011 at the Capitol Hilton in Washington, D.C. To learn more about AHIP and the Exchange Conference Series, visit <http://www.ahip.org>.
