RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that Laura Rosenak, Senior Vice President of the Company's child support practice, was recently presented with the Western Interstate Child Support Enforcement Council's (WICSEC) Honorary Lifetime Award at the organization's 33rd annual conference.

WICSEC is a nonprofit organization of public and private child support enforcement agencies and professionals from states, tribes and territories west of the Mississippi River. Ms. Rosenak received the organization's Honorary Lifetime Award, which recognizes distinguished individuals who have demonstrated outstanding leadership across the program on behalf of the WICSEC organization. Consideration for the award requires nomination by peers in both the public and private sectors.

With more than 25 years of experience, Ms. Rosenak exemplifies a commitment to the well-being of children and families. In her current role at MAXIMUS, she provides leadership and guidance for more than 50 child support projects across North America. Ms. Rosenak served two terms on the WICSEC Board of Directors from 2007 through 2013, serving as President of the organization in 2011, and has been a Board Advisor since 2013. She is also a newly elected voting Board Director effective October 7, 2016, and will serve a three-year term.

"It's an honor to work with WICSEC and to be a part of an organization truly dedicated to ensuring that children and families are given the emotional and financial support they deserve. It is incredibly rewarding to have the opportunity to work in this industry, and to be a part of such a noteworthy organization," commented Ms. Rosenak.

MAXIMUS has a long and rewarding history of serving as a trusted partner to child support agencies since 1992. The Company delivers best practices and innovations through staff who are as knowledgeable as they are compassionate with expertise across the full spectrum of child support operations. MAXIMUS offers a diverse portfolio of services including business process outsourcing, transaction processing, employer services, contact centers, outreach, training and early intervention programs - all designed to deliver unparalleled service and outcomes for participants.

"We are very proud of Laura's achievements," remarked MAXIMUS CEO Richard A. Montoni. "Her passion for her work, and her dedication to serving children, shines through in everything she does. It is a pleasure to work with her and we are proud to have her as the executive of our child support practice."
