

BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP AND JOINT VENTURE INTERESTS

Newmont is an original signatory to the Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI) and is actively involved in the efforts to promote revenue transparency and accountability in the extractive industry. We supported a statement that makes several commitments to Beneficial Ownership Transparency in line with the Expectations for EITI supporting companies. The EITI defines beneficial ownership to mean “the natural person(s) who directly or indirectly ultimately owns or controls the corporate entity.” In connection with the disclosure of the beneficial owners of publicly listed companies and their wholly owned subsidiaries, the EITI requires disclosure of the name of the stock exchange and a link to the filings where they are listed to further facilitate public access to a company’s beneficial ownership information.

Newmont is incorporated in Delaware and headquartered in Denver, Colorado, and is a publicly traded company with securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) under the symbol NEM, the Toronto Stock Exchange (TSX) under the symbol NGT, the Australia Securities Exchange (ASX) under the symbol NEM, and the Papua New Guinea Stock Exchange (PNGX) under the symbol NEM. Additional information about our listed securities can be found on our website, as well as on the NYSE, the TSX, the ASX and the PNGX websites. Links to our public U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) filings can be found on our website and on the SEC’s website.

To promote transparency through the disclosure of beneficial ownership information, we also voluntarily provide information on our substantial beneficial owners. The following table sets forth information with respect to each person known by Newmont to be the beneficial owner of more than 5 percent of any class of the Company’s voting securities. The share information contained herein is based on investor filings with the SEC pursuant to Section 13(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This information will be updated on an annual basis, and can also be found in Newmont’s Annual Proxy Statement under the heading “Stock Ownership of Certain Beneficial Owners,” along with information regarding the stock ownership of our directors and officers.

Newmont is party to certain commercial arrangements in connection with operations and other extractive projects, including joint ventures. We provide information on the names, interests, corporation type and domicile of our joint ventures and other jointly-owned entities in the table linked below.

The joint ventures ownership and partnership interests table on the following page reports on ownership and interests in connection with our managed operations, operating joint ventures and near-term projects highlighted in our project pipeline.

We have not included information where an operation is wholly owned by Newmont entities, with respect to reclamation or other obligations shared at non-operating sites, or early-stage exploration partnerships not currently engaged in extractive operations or mine development. Information regarding Newmont's subsidiaries can be found in Exhibit 21 to our Annual Report on Form 10-K, which is available on Newmont's and the SEC's websites.

It is noted that the table is as of December 31, 2024. It is Newmont's intention to update this table on annual basis with relevant changes, if any.
