1.2 Construction. In the Agreement: (a) the singular includes the plural and vice versa; (b) reference to any document means such document as amended from time to time upon mutual agreement of the Parties; (c) headings are for convenience only and are not intended to interpret, define or limit the scope, extent or intent of any Agreement or any provision thereof; (d) “include” or “including” means including without limiting the generality of any description preceding such term; and (e) all references to currency are to the lawful currency of Canada/United States, as specified. Newmont has recommended that the Supplier obtain independent legal advice regarding the Agreement and its effect. The Supplier represents that it has done so or has voluntarily chosen not to do so. The Parties agree that any rule of construction to the effect that any ambiguity of an agreement will be resolved against the drafting Party will not apply to the interpretation of an Agreement.

2. Agreement

2.1 Entire Agreement. The Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between Newmont and the Supplier in respect of the purchase of Goods and/or Services specified in a Purchase Order, and supersedes any prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements or communications between the Parties relating to the subject matter thereof.

2.2 Supplier Documents. The Parties anticipate that Goods may from time to time be delivered by the Supplier to Newmont pursuant to Supplier Documents and that such Supplier Documents may contain terms or conditions that are different from, or in addition to, the Terms (the “Proposed Terms”). Unless otherwise provided herein or as may be agreed in writing by Newmont and the Supplier (a) no Proposed Terms in the Supplier’s order acknowledgment or invoice forms or in any other Supplier Documents that are inconsistent with the Terms shall be of any force or effect; and (b) Newmont expressly rejects all Proposed Terms contained in any Supplier Document, regardless when the Supplier Document containing Proposed Terms is received by Newmont.

2.3 Incorporation into Agreement. Except as may otherwise be specifically provided in the Purchase Order, these Agreed Standard Terms shall be deemed incorporated into and made a part of each Agreement between Newmont and the Supplier.

2.4 Priority of Documents. In the event of, and to the extent only of any conflict between the Agreed Standard Terms and the Purchase Order, the Agreed Standard Terms will prevail over the Purchase Order unless such Purchase Order clearly indicates the Parties’ intention to override the provisions of this Agreement.

2.5 Acceptance. An Agreement shall be deemed to have been formed upon: (a) the execution of a Purchase Order by Newmont and the Supplier; or (b) delivery by the Supplier of the goods or services specified in a Purchase Order issued by Newmont.

3. Purchase of Goods

3.1 Purchase of Goods. A Purchase Order may be placed by Newmont either (a) orally and followed by a written or electronic Purchase Order; or (b) by delivery of a written or electronic Purchase Order. The quantity of Goods to be purchased under the Purchase Order, the delivery requirements specific to the Delivery Location (including days of week and times of day that deliveries will be accepted and packaging requirements), the Delivery Schedule and shipping instructions and directions applicable to shipments to the Delivery Location and any other specifications for the Goods, as applicable, shall be as set out in the Purchase Order. No Purchase Order and/or any addition, waiver, alteration or modification thereto shall be valid unless made in writing and signed by an authorized representative of each Party specifically referencing the relevant Purchase Order. The Supplier may request changes to the Purchase Order, by written notice to Newmont, in response to which Newmont may issue a changed Purchase Order to be signed by an authorized representative of each Party. If Newmont is unable to accept the requested changes, Newmont will cancel the Purchase Order without any cost or liability.

3.2 Delivery. The Supplier shall deliver the Goods specified in an Agreement in accordance with the Delivery Schedule provided therein. Unless otherwise specified in the applicable Purchase Order, the Supplier shall be solely responsible for transporting and delivering the Goods to the Delivery Location. The Supplier shall comply with all requirements under applicable Laws relating to the production, handling, loading, transporting, delivery and unloading of the Goods in and to each jurisdiction in which the Goods are transported and delivered and shall comply with such other requirements as may be specified in the Purchase Order. All transport vehicles shall be professionally operated and shall comply with all such Laws and other requirements. The Supplier shall ensure that all of its employees and any other applicable Supplier Related Parties have been properly trained and are properly supervised with respect to the production, handling, loading, transporting, delivery and unloading of the Goods. If the Supplier engages any third party carriers to deliver the Goods, the Supplier shall exercise due care to select carriers who will perform to the same standards as are required of the Supplier hereunder, and the Supplier shall monitor any such third party carriers to ensure that each carrier complies with all Laws applicable to the handling, loading, transporting, delivery and unloading of the Goods. If the scheduled delivery of Goods is delayed by Newmont or a force majeure event suffered by Newmont, the Supplier may, on prior written notice to Newmont move the Goods to storage for the account of and at the risk of Newmont whereupon the Goods shall be deemed to be delivered.

3.3 Delivery to a Site. Where Goods are to be delivered to a Site, the Supplier shall consult with Newmont to establish an appropriate time for delivering the Goods and the Supplier shall use all reasonable efforts to ensure that the Goods are delivered at such time and in accordance with the Delivery Schedule. No deliveries may be made prior to the scheduled delivery date without the prior approval of Newmont. The Supplier and the Supplier Related Parties responsible for the delivery of Goods to a Site shall: (a) comply with Newmont’s code of conduct and Newmont and the Site’s policies and procedures, as applicable and as each may be provided by Newmont from time to time. Such compliance includes the participation in the Site’s safety trainings/instruction courses, as necessary, at no additional cost to Newmont; (b) not interfere with Newmont’s activities and leave Newmont’s premises secure, clean orderly having regard to the condition of such premises immediately prior to such access by the Supplier; (c) ensure that the Goods are delivered in a safe manner that does not prejudice safe working practices, safety and care of property and continuity of work at the Site; and (d) comply with Newmont’s unloading and loading policy, as such policy may be provided to Supplier from time to time.

3.4 Packaging. The Goods shall be packaged in accordance with all applicable Laws and any Newmont specifications set forth in an Agreement and in such manner as may be required for the protection of the Goods from damage or destruction by any hazard prior to acceptance of the Goods by Newmont. All packages shall include labels and tags containing adequate and accurate information with respect to use, safety and treatment of the Goods. The Supplier shall ensure that the Goods are properly contained, secured, labelled, safety marked, documented and inspected at all times during the course of handling, loading, transporting, delivery and unloading so as to comply with all applicable Laws. No separate or additional charges for containers, crating, boxing, bundling or other packaging materials shall be payable unless specified in the Purchase Order. The Supplier shall be responsible for any Goods that are damaged during shipment or require additional packaging and/or labelling did not comply with the required specifications. A packing list showing the Purchase Order number and release number if applicable shall be included with each shipment. The shipping label on the shipping container shall be marked to show the Purchaser Order number of all Purchase Orders contained within the container and each interior container shall be marked to show the Purchase Order number.

3.5 Title and Risk of Loss. Title to the Goods and the risk of loss with respect thereto shall pass to Newmont upon delivery in accordance with the Incoterm as specified in the Purchase Order, or if not so specified, then upon physical receipt of the Goods by Newmont and final inspection and acceptance by Newmont following delivery to the Delivery Location. Newmont shall have no responsibility whatsoever for the Goods or any liabilities in connection therewith arising prior to the time title to the Goods has so passed to Newmont.

3.6 Inspection. Newmont may inspect or test the Goods during their manufacture, processing, construction, preparation, completion and delivery, at reasonable times upon reasonable advance notice and subject to compliance with the Supplier’s policies regarding site safety and the Supplier’s policies regarding the use of identification badges and rules concerning hours of arrival to and departure from the Supplier’s site.

3.7 Excess Goods. If the Supplier delivers Goods that is more than the quantity specified in the applicable Purchase Order or otherwise do not conform to the specifications set out in the applicable Purchase Order, Newmont may return any excess quantities or non-conforming Goods to the Supplier at the Supplier’s sole risk and expense.

3.8 Cancellation and Returns. Purchase Orders for Goods may be cancelled by Newmont in whole or in part as provided in section 7.3 hereof. Subsequent to shipment, cancellation of Purchase Orders for Goods, other than defective Goods, shall be subject to the Supplier’s return policy, provided that the Supplier shall not unreasonably withhold approval for requests to return Goods.

3.9 Product Warranties. In addition to and without limiting the Supplier’s standard equipment, services and software warranty set out in section 8 hereof, and in addition to any other specific product warranties and guarantees set forth in the Purchase Order, the Supplier represents, warrants and agrees that (a) such Goods will conform to the specifications set forth in the Purchase Order; (b) such Goods will be of the quality, size and dimensions ordered and be free from defects in material and workmanship; (c) such Goods will be free and clear of all Liens; (d) such Goods will be of new and merchantable quality; (e) good and marketable title to such Goods will be transferred to Newmont upon delivery of the Goods pursuant to the applicable Incoterm; and (f) such Goods will comply with all applicable government standards and all Laws relating to health, safety and environmental matters. The foregoing representations and warranties shall survive any inspection, delivery, acceptance or payment by Newmont and in the case of sections 3.9 (a) and (b), for the Warranty Remedy Period as set out in the Supplier’s standard warranty in section 8. In addition, the Supplier will ensure that Newmont has the full benefit of any manufacturer’s warranties that may be applicable to the Goods and the Supplier must pursue any manufacturer’s warranties on Newmont’s behalf if Newmont so requests.

3.10 License to Use Intellectual Property. The Supplier grants to Newmont a perpetual, royalty-free, irrevocable license to use any patent, software, design, trade secret, know-how, documentation or information owned by or licensed to the Supplier and relating to the Goods: (a) provided to Newmont pursuant to an Agreement; or (b) is otherwise required in order that Newmont may use the Goods in the manner contemplated in an Agreement.

3.11 Licenses to Sell Goods. The Supplier shall hold and keep in good standing and shall cause each Supplier Related Party involved in the sale of Goods to Newmont to hold and keep in good standing in each applicable jurisdiction all licenses, permits, authorizations, registrations, exemptions, consents and approvals required to be held by the Supplier or such Supplier Related Party under applicable Laws in such jurisdictions in order to sell and deliver Goods to Newmont.

3.12 Compliance with Laws. In performing its obligations under the Agreement, Supplier shall comply with all applicable Laws, including labor and tax laws, laws addressing the preservation of health, safety, and the environment. Supplier warrants that, as applicable, all Services and Goods shall be in compliance with Environmental Laws. Supplier represents and warrants that prior to performance of Services or delivery of Goods under each Purchase Order, each Supplier Party that will sell or deliver the Goods at Newmont premises will be familiar with and knowledgeable about the Laws in the jurisdiction where the sale and delivery of the Goods will be performed. Supplier shall at all times retain exclusive control over and shall be solely responsible for evaluation, implementation, and all other decisions relating to the Environmental Laws as they pertain to the sale and delivery of the Goods.

3.13 Tariff Documentation. The Supplier shall provide to Newmont on request any certificates of origin, affidavits of manufacturer or other tariff documentation for any Goods which receive preferential tariff treatment under any trade agreement or special tariff agreement (collectively, “Tariff Documentation”). The Tariff Documentation shall be provided with each shipment of the Goods. The Supplier shall update any Tariff
Documentation and shall notify Newmont of any changes affecting eligibility under any applicable trade agreement or special tariff agreement within thirty (30) days after any change occurs. The Supplier shall ensure that all Goods with foreign origin are marked in English with the country of origin.

4. Supply of Services

4.1 Supply of Services. The Supplier shall perform or shall cause Supplier Related Parties to perform any Services described in a Purchase Order in accordance with the specifications set out therein.

4.2 Performance and Subcontracting. The Supplier shall perform and shall cause each Supplier Related Party to perform all Services in full in accordance with the specifications and the Agreement, and in accordance with industry standards and all applicable Laws. The Supplier shall not subcontract the performance of the Services without Newmont’s prior written consent. Subcontracting shall not release the Supplier from any of its obligations under the Agreement, provided that performance of any Services in full by a subcontractor shall be deemed performance of such Services by the Supplier. The Supplier shall preserve and protect the rights of Newmont under the Agreement with respect to any Services to be performed by a subcontractor, including requiring each subcontractor to perform the services in compliance with this Agree Standard Terms.

4.3 Equipment. Unless the Purchase Order provides otherwise, the Supplier must supply all equipment, parts and materials necessary to perform the Services, at the Supplier’s expense.

4.4 Access to Site. The Supplier and Supplier Related Parties shall have access to any Site to the extent required for the performance of any Services described in the Purchase Order. The Supplier, the Supplier Related Parties and any of their personnel responsible for the performance of Services at a Site shall: (a) comply with Newmont’s policies in accordance with section 4.5, as such policies may be provided by Newmont from time to time; (b) not interfere with Newmont’s activities and leave Newmont’s premises secure, clean orderly having regard to the condition of such premises immediately prior to such access by the Supplier or Supplier Related Parties; and (c) ensure that the Services are delivered in a safe manner that does not prejudice safe working practices, safety and care of property and continuity of work at the Site.

4.5 Compliance with Newmont Policies.

(a) Supplier represents that, before signing any Purchase Order, it will inspect the site at which the Services are to be performed or the Goods are to be delivered, become familiar with such site, and satisfy itself as to all conditions including surface, subsurface and other site conditions. Supplier agrees that any compensation and schedule requirements to which it agrees under any such Purchase Order will be based on such inspection and will be just and reasonable for the Services and delivery of the Goods under such Purchase Order.

(b) For Services performed at a Site, the Supplier shall be aware of and comply with and ensure that all Supplier Related Parties performing Services at the Site are aware of and comply with (a) all applicable standards and policies available at www.newmont.com under the Governance and Ethics section of the About Us tab; (b) all requirements set out in manuals, procedures, safety and sustainability policies, regulations and other written materials, including the Fatality Risk Management system, the Goldcorp Golden Guide and the Lifesaving Rules, together with all amendments made from time to time to any of the foregoing; (c) Newmont’s policies regarding mine safety, including mine safety training, the use of identification badges and contractor cards and rules concerning hours of work and arrival to and departure from the Site; and (d) all lawful directions and orders given by Newmont and management at the Site. Such compliance includes participation in the Site’s safety training/induction courses, as necessary, at no additional cost to Newmont.

(c) Supplier acknowledges having reviewed Newmont’s Code of Conduct and Newmont’s Supplier Code of Conduct, each of which is available under the Governance and Ethics section of the About Us tab at www.Newmont.com and, when Supplier is engaged in activities on Newmont’s behalf, Supplier shall abide by the principles expressed in Newmont’s Code of Conduct, to the extent applicable. Supplier shall comply with Newmont’s Acceptable Technology Use Standard if, in the course of performing the Services or supplying the Goods, Supplier has access to Newmont’s information technology equipment or systems.

4.6 Reporting. The Supplier shall provide all reports required and as specified by Newmont under a Purchase Order, and any ad hoc or other reports reasonably requested by Newmont from time to time. All reports will be well-organized, complete and accurate.

4.7 Inspection. Newmont shall have the right to inspect the Services at any time during the Agreement term. To assist Newmont in this respect, the Supplier shall give Newmont reasonable notice of readiness for inspection of all Services before the same are substantially completed. The Services shall not be deemed acceptable until after final inspection by Newmont. The making or failure to make any inspection of, or payment for or acceptance of the Services, shall in no way impair Newmont’s rights to reject non-conforming Services, or to avail itself of any other remedies to which Newmont may be entitled, notwithstanding Newmont’s knowledge of the non-conformity, its substantiality or the ease of its discovery. For greater certainty, the Supplier is not relieved of its responsibilities under an Agreement because Newmont has reviewed, inspected, examined or witnessed any testing of the Services.

4.8 Knowledge of Hazards and Acceptance of Risks.

(a) At all times when Supplier is present on Newmont premises, comply with the applicable provisions of Newmont’s site and workplace policies, standards, and procedures, including requirements relating to the areas of health, safety, and loss prevention, in each case, as such document may be amended from time to time by Newmont, in its sole discretion, and provided to Supplier (including in connection with any job hazard analysis training that may be provided to Supplier’s personnel by Newmont), (ii) perform the Services or deliver the Goods only during regular working hours (local time, 8:00am to 5:00pm, Monday – Friday) unless prior written consent is obtained from Newmont, (iii) conduct all activities on Newmont premises so as to avoid or minimize delay or interference with any other person or entity performing work or services, and (iv) keep Newmont premises clean and free of any debris and rubbish caused by the Services or delivery of the Goods and on completion of the Services or delivery of the Goods leave such Newmont premises clean and ready for use. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing provision, if Supplier will be present in any high risk and/or sensitive areas, such as the refinery, carbon handling areas, leach prep ponds, refractory ore treatment plant, or any other area designated by Newmont as high risk and/or sensitive (collectively, “High Risk Areas”):
Suppliers to provide, at Suppliers sole expense, means of evacuation services (of a substantially similar type as that generally employed by Newmont), (b) conduct drug testing of its employees and agents, and ensure that its Subcontractors and, if they have personnel coming onto Newmont’s Premises, its Suppliers conduct drug testing of their employees and agents, within one (1) month prior to initial admission of such personnel to Newmont premises for performance of the Services. Upon Newmont’s request, Supplier shall provide to Newmont all appropriate documents showing that Supplier is in compliance with the requirements of this Section.

Evacuations. It is possible that Newmont, in its reasonable discretion, may determine that an evacuation of any or all personnel from a Newmont worksite or other work location is necessary for health, safety, or any other reason (an “Evacuation”). Under such circumstances, Newmont generally employs the services of one (1) or more third party contractors (“Evacuation Providers”) to carry out all aspects of the Evacuation. In such event, Newmont shall use reasonable, good faith efforts to notify Supplier of the impending Evacuation and, either at the request of Supplier or of Newmont safety personnel in the event of a safety emergency or at the request of Newmont medical personnel, or Newmont health and safety personnel in the event of a medical emergency, Newmont shall use reasonable, good faith efforts to notify the Evacuation Providers of the presence of Supplier party personnel or invitees at the Site and direct Evacuation Providers to provide, at Supplier’s sole expense, evacuation services (of a substantially similar type as that provided to Newmont’s personnel) to Supplier party personnel or invitees (“Evacuation Services”). Supplier hereby assumes all risks of and responsibility for any Losses (including damage (property or otherwise), injury, or death), excluding, however, any of the same to the extent caused by the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Supplier.

Controlled Substances. (a) While on Newmont premises (including in any Newmont owned or leased motor vehicles), Supplier Parties shall not (i) possess, sell, manufacture, dispense, or distribute any controlled substance, unauthorized prescription medication, or any other chemical substance that may affect an individual’s mood, senses, responses, or motor functions, or may alter or affect a person’s perception, performance, judgment, reactions, or senses, including alcohol and medical marijuana (collectively, “Chemical Substances”), (ii) consume or use any Chemical Substance, or (iii) possess any firearm. Any such individuals who exhibit behavior while on Newmont premises which gives rise to a reasonable suspicion of consumption or use of a Chemical Substance may be requested by Newmont to submit to one (1) or more Chemical Substance screening tests, to be conducted or otherwise arranged by Supplier and conducted at Supplier’s sole expense. In such event, Newmont will request that the individual review and sign a waiver or consent to test document. An individual’s refusal to sign such waiver or document or refusal to submit to any such screening test will be deemed admission by such individual of consumption or use of a Controlled Substance.

(b) At the request of Newmont, Supplier shall immediately remove from any job site or from participation in any aspect of the Services any of its or its subcontractor’s or supplier’s personnel that Newmont determines, in its sole, absolute, and non-reviewable discretion, pose a danger to the safety or health of those around them (including because of the individual’s violation of the first paragraph of this Section) or are otherwise unfit or incompetent to perform the Services.

(c) If requested by Newmont, Supplier shall conduct drug testing of its employees and agents, and ensure that its Subcontractors and, if they have personnel coming onto Newmont’s Premises, its Suppliers conduct drug testing of their employees and agents, within one (1) month prior to initial admission of such personnel to Newmont premises for performance of the Services. Upon Newmont’s request, Supplier shall provide to Newmont all appropriate documents showing that Supplier is in compliance with the requirements of this Section.
negligence or willful misconduct of Newmont. In addition, Supplier acknowledges that any and all Evacuation Services shall be performed at Supplier’s sole cost and expense and Supplier shall be solely liable to Evacuation Providers for all such costs and expenses. If any Evacuation Providers charge Newmont for provision of Evacuation Services to Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party with the WorkSafe until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has obtained from the WorkSafe a waiver of such withholding tax or a reduction in the rate of such withholding tax.

4.15 Ownership and License to Use Intellectual Property.
(a) Subject to Supplier’s retention of Know-How and perpetual license to Newmont set out in section 4.15(b), all right, title and interest (including all intellectual property rights) in and to the deliverables, all work product generated by the performance of the Services, including, any documentation, reports, drawings, designs, plans, schedules, manuals, and models, (collectively the “Work Product”) are hereby irrevocably assigned, transferred and conveyed by the Supplier to Newmont.
(b) The Supplier grants to Newmont and Newmont Related Parties a perpetual, royalty-free, irrevocable license to use any patent, software, design, trade secret, know-how or information owned by or licensed to the Supplier and relating to the Services (the “Know-How”) required in order that Newmont and Newmont Related Parties may benefit from the Services in the manner contemplated in the Agreement.
(c) Nothing contained in these Agreed Standard Terms will prohibit the Supplier from using any of the Know-How to perform similar services for others; provided however that the Supplier will not use any of Newmont’s Confidential Information in providing services to others. The Supplier shall execute and cause Supplier Related Parties to execute such assignments and other documents as may be necessary to confirm the allocation of ownership of intellectual property rights as contemplated in this section 4.15. The Supplier shall obtain unconditional and irrevocable waivers for the benefit of Newmont and Newmont Related Parties from all individuals involved in the creation of any Work Product, of all rights which cannot be assigned, including moral rights.

4.16 Licenses to Perform Services. The Supplier shall hold and keep in good standing and shall cause each Supplier Related Party performing Services to hold and keep in good standing in each applicable jurisdiction all licenses, permits, authorizations, registrations, exemptions, consents and approvals required to be held by the Supplier and each such Supplier Related Party under applicable Laws in order to perform the Services.

4.17 Services in British Columbia. Before commencing performance of any Services in British Columbia, the Supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Newmont a clearance letter issued by WorkSafe BC (“WorkSafe”) confirming that the Supplier or, if the Services are to be performed by a Supplier Related Party, such Supplier Related Party is registered with WorkSafe and has an account in good standing with WorkSafe. Newmont shall have the right to retain holdbacks from any payments in respect of Services otherwise due to the Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party with the WorkSafe until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has provided clearance certificates from the WorkSafe covering the periods in which the Services were performed.

4.18 Services in the Northwest Territories and/or Nunavut. Before commencing performance of any Services in the Northwest Territories and/or Nunavut, the Supplier shall... deliver or cause to be delivered to Newmont a clearance letter issued by the Workers’ Safety & Compensation Commission (the “WSCC”) confirming that the Supplier or, if the Services are to be performed by a Supplier Related Party, such Supplier Related Party is registered with the WSCC and has an account in good standing with the WSCC. Newmont shall have the right to retain holdbacks from any payments in respect of Services otherwise due to the Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party with the WSCC until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has provided clearance certificates from the WSCC covering the periods in which the Services were performed.

4.19 Services in Yukon. Before commencing performance of any Services in Yukon, the Supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Newmont a clearance certificate issued by the Workers’ Compensation Health and Safety Board (the “WCB”) confirming that the Supplier or, if the Services are to be performed by a Supplier Related Party, such Supplier Related Party is registered with the WCB and has an account in good standing with the WCB. Newmont shall have the right to retain holdbacks from any payments in respect of Services otherwise due to the Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party with the WCB until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has provided clearance certificates from the WCB covering the periods in which the Services were performed.

4.20 Services in Ontario. Before commencing performance of any Services in Ontario, the Supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Newmont a clearance letter issued by the Workers Safety Insurance Board of Ontario (the “WSIB”) confirming that the Supplier or, if the Services are to be performed by a Supplier Related Party, such Supplier Related Party is registered with the WSIB and has an account in good standing with the WSIB. Newmont shall have the right to retain holdbacks from any payments in respect of Services otherwise due to the Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party under the WSIA until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has provided clearance certificates from the WSIB covering the periods in which the Services were performed.

4.21 Services in Québec. Before commencing performance of any Services in Québec, the Supplier shall deliver or cause to be delivered to Newmont sufficient evidence issued by the Commission des normes, de l’équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (the “CNESST”), confirming that the Supplier or, if the Services are to be performed by a Supplier Related Party, such Supplier Related Party is registered with the CNESST and has an account in good standing with the CNESST and that all assessments, reassessments, compensation, indemnities, fines and penalties assessed by the CNESST have been paid. Newmont shall have the right to retain holdbacks from any payments in respect of Services otherwise due to the Supplier, such holdbacks to be in amounts sufficient to cover the obligations of the Supplier and any Supplier Related Party under the CNESST until the Supplier or the Supplier Related Party has provided clearance certificates from the CNESST covering the periods in which the Services were performed. Should the Supplier or a Supplier Related Party be exempt from registration with the CNESST, a letter signed by the CNESST to that effect shall be delivered to Newmont.

4.22 Compliance with Laws. In performing the Services, Supplier shall comply with all laws that are applicable to the Services, including labor and tax laws, laws addressing bribery and corruption, and laws addressing the preservation of health, safety, and the environment. Supplier warrants that, as applicable, all Services shall be in compliance with Environmental Laws. Supplier represents and warrants that prior to performance of Services under each Purchase Order, each Supplier Party that will perform Services at Newmont premises will be familiar with and knowledgeable about the Environmental Laws in the jurisdiction where the Services will be performed. Supplier shall at all times retain exclusive control over and shall be solely responsible for evaluation, implementation, and all other decisions relating to the Environmental Laws as they pertain to performance of the Services.

4.23 Open Site. Where Newmont’s Site is an open site where contractors, subcontractors and suppliers providing goods or services may be union or non-union, the Supplier shall perform the Services and shall cause any Supplier Related Party performing Services to perform the Services in a manner so as to ensure that there is no work stoppage or other labour dispute and shall if so requested by Newmont obtain written agreements with any unions representing its employees that the Supplier Related Party will honor the collective agreement will not be exercised in connection with the provision of the Services.

4.24 Cancellation. Any Services described in the Purchase Order may be cancelled by Newmont in whole or in part as provided in section 7.3 hereof.

5. Price, Compensation, Change Orders and Payments

5.1 Price and Compensation. The Price to be paid for Goods and the Compensation to be paid for Services by Newmont to the Supplier shall be as set forth in the Purchase Order. The Price and Compensation shall remain in effect regardless of any changes in currency rates, revenue Laws, treasury regulations or tariffs, increases in the appraisal of the value of the Goods or Services by customs authorities of any country or other variables, unless otherwise provided in the Purchase Order. Such Prices and Compensation are inclusive of: (a) all charges for packaging, packing, insurance, equipment, materials or tools used in the delivery of the Goods and/or Services, as applicable; and (b) the cost of any miscellaneous services of any kind which are commonly provided with the Goods and any miscellaneous items of any kind which are commonly used or supplied in the performance (and in conjunction with) the Services.

5.2 Change Orders. Without limiting the rights of Newmont under section 7.3, Newmont may modify a Purchase Order so long as such modification is given in advance of shipment of Goods or the performance of Services by the issuance of a Change Order. If modifications contained in the Change Order can reasonably be expected to necessitate an adjustment to the Price, Compensation or Delivery Schedule, as the case may be, the Parties shall endeavor to reach an equitable adjustment as soon as practicable so as not to adversely affect the Price, Compensation or Delivery Schedule. Unless otherwise agreed, the amount of any Price adjustment shall be equal to the amount of the increase or decrease in the costs incurred by the Supplier directly resulting from the Change Order. The Supplier will not implement and will not be compensated for any change that adversely affects Newmont, increases safety or security risks, increases the Price, Compensation or causes delays in Delivery Schedule, or will result in a breach of applicable Law,
5.3 Amount of Payment. Payment of the Price for Goods and the Compensation for Services shall be made as specified in the Purchase Order. Any modification to the Price or the Compensation shall be of no force or effect unless processed through a Change Order signed by the Parties in accordance with section 5.2.

5.4 Taxes, Duties and Other Charges.
(a) Other than taxes, levies, or duties assessed upon and attributable to Newmont’s property, without Newmont’s prior written consent specifically agreeing to such impact.
(b) Notwithstanding Section 5.4(a), unless and except to the extent otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall be responsible for remitting or causing to be remitted all taxes (including goods and services tax ("GST"), retail sales tax ("RST"), harmonized sales tax ("HST"), value added tax ("VAT"), Quebec Sales Tax ("QST") or similar taxes or charges where applicable), duties, impots or other charges relating to or arising out of any Agreement and the purchase and sale and delivery of the Goods to Newmont and the performance of any Services for Newmont. Newmont shall be responsible for any such taxes, duties, impots or other charges, the Supplier shall provide Newmont with all necessary invoices, notifications and advices relating to such taxes, duties, impots and other charges. If and to the extent that Newmont pays any taxes, duties, impots or other charges payable by the Supplier, the Supplier shall reimburse such payment promptly upon request. Upon the request of Newmont, the Supplier shall provide all reasonable assistance to cause the benefit of any credit, rebate, drawback or other recovery to which Newmont is entitled to be passed along to Newmont.
(c) Supplier shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Newmont and its affiliates, their respective officers, directors, employees, and agents, and the assigns of each of the foregoing from and against any and all Claims, and all Losses related thereto, incurred in connection with Supplier’s failure to pay such taxes, levies, duties, and assessments as required in this Section 5.4.

5.5 Customs and Regulatory Approvals. Unless otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall obtain all customs approvals and permits and meet all other regulatory requirements to permit the sale of the Goods to Newmont and delivery of the Goods to the Delivery Location, other than any customs approvals, permits or other regulatory requirements which by their nature can only be obtained by Newmont.

5.6 No Liens. Supplier must not and must not allow or permit any Supplier Related Party to assert any right to a Lien over the Site (or any other property of Newmont) or take any steps whatsoever to lodge or register a Lien over the Site (or any other property of Newmont) under, or in pursuance of, any applicable Law relating to Liens. If any Lien is lodged or registered against the Site or any other property of Newmont either prior to or after the termination or expiration of an Agreement by a Supplier Related Party, then the Supplier must, at its sole cost and expense, promptly vacate, discharge or otherwise cause that Lien to be removed and discharged.

5.7 Lien Holdbacks. Newmont shall have the right to retain Lien holdbacks from any payments in respect of Goods or Services otherwise due to the Supplier in such amount and for such period as may be permitted or required in accordance with applicable Laws relating to Liens.

5.8 Delivery of Clearance Certificates. Before commencing to perform Services the Supplier shall deliver to Newmont any clearance certificates obtainable under applicable Laws relating to occupational health and safety. Newmont shall have the right to hold back from payment of Compensation for Services an amount equal to the greater of ten percent (10%) of the Compensation for such Services and the current rate from time to time for employer premiums under applicable Laws relating to workers safety insurance in the jurisdictions in which the Services are performed until final clearance certificates are provided.

5.9 Setoff. Newmont shall be entitled to set off any amount payable by Newmont under any Agreement Newmont may have with the Supplier against any financial obligations the Supplier may have to Newmont.

5.10 Invoices and Payment Terms. Unless otherwise provided in the Purchase Order, the Supplier shall invoice Newmont monthly on the basis of one (1) invoice per month. All invoices from the Supplier shall be delivered to the Accounts Payable Department of Newmont. Subject in each case to the requirements of sections 4.14, 5.7, 5.8 and 5.9, the payment date shall be calculated from the date an undisputed invoice is received by Newmont’s Accounts Payable Department.

6. Mutual Representations and Warranties

6.1 Representations and Warranties. Each Party to an Agreement represents and warrants to the other that:
(a) the Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary procedures;
(b) the Agreement does not violate any provision of the Party’s governing documents or any Laws applicable to such Party;
(c) the Agreement will not result in the breach of any agreement by which such Party is bound;
(d) the Party has the requisite power, capacity and authority to carry out all of its obligations under the Agreement; and
(e) as at the effective date of an Agreement, there are no, and there will not be any, material outstanding litigation, investigation, arbitration or other disputed matters to which the Party is a party which may have a material adverse affect upon the supply of the Goods or usage of the deliverables and the Services or the fulfillment of the Party’s responsibilities and obligations pursuant to the Agreement. Without prejudice to the foregoing, during an Agreement term, the Supplier shall inform Newmont in the event that any material litigation, investigation, arbitration or other disputed matter occurs, or is likely to occur, which may have a material adverse effect upon the supply of the Goods or usage of the deliverables and the Services or the fulfillment of the responsibilities and obligations of the Supplier. For greater certainty, investigations related to the alleged violation of any applicable anti-bribery laws shall be considered a “material investigation” for the purposes of this section 6.1(e).

6.2 Representation and Warranties Regarding Human Rights. Supplier commits to respect human rights in line with the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (“Human Rights”). Supplier represents, warrants, and covenants to Newmont, as of the date hereof, and the date that each invoice is submitted to Newmont hereunder, that no violation of Human Rights exists in any of its or its affiliates’ own operations or, to its knowledge, within the operations of any of its or its affiliates’ subcontractors and vendors. If, during the Term, Supplier becomes aware of any breaches of this representation, it will promptly provide Notice thereof to Newmont. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Standard Terms and Conditions or an Agreement, Newmont may immediately suspend any Agreement in the event it should receive information which, in its sole discretion, it determines to be evidence of a breach by Supplier of any undertaking set forth above. In the event of receipt of such Notice or evidence and/or such suspension, Newmont shall consult with Supplier and may thereafter immediately terminate an Agreement if Newmont, in its sole discretion, is reasonably satisfied that such a breach has occurred. In the event of such termination, Newmont shall have no liability to Supplier under an Agreement for any fees, reimbursements, or other compensation under an Agreement or for any other loss, cost, claim, or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, to Supplier from such termination, other than for Services already performed and/or Goods already delivered.

6.3 Representation and Warranties Regarding Anti-Bribery and Corruption.

(a) Supplier represents, warrants and covenants to Newmont, as of the date hereof and the date that each invoice is submitted to Newmont, that in carrying out its responsibilities, neither Supplier, nor any of its equity holders, beneficial owners, partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, or representatives shall, directly or indirectly, offer, pay, promise to pay, or authorize the payment of any money, or offer, give, promise to give, or authorize the giving of anything of value: (A) to (1) any official or employee of any government, or any department, agency, or instrumentality thereof and any “foreign public official” as defined in the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (Canada), (2) any political party or official thereof, or any candidate for political office, (3) any official or employee of any public international organization (as defined in 22 USC Section 288), or (4) any person acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of such government, department, agency, instrumentality, party, or public international organization, or “foreign state” as defined in the Corruption of Foreign Public Officials Act (Canada), in each case for the purpose of influencing any act or decision of such party, or of such official, employee or candidate in his official capacity, or inducing such official, employee, party or candidate to do or omit to do any act in violation of the lawful duty of such official, employee, party or candidate, or securing any improper advantage, or inducing such official, employee, party or candidate to use his or its influence with a government or instrumentality thereof to improperly or illegally affect or influence any act or decision of such government or instrumentality; or (B) to an officer, employee, agent, or representative of another company or organization, with the intent to influence or reward the recipient’s action(s) with respect to his company’s or organization’s business, or to gain a commercial benefit to the detriment of the recipient’s company or organization, or to induce or reward the improper performance of the recipient’s duties. (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these Standard Terms and Conditions or any Agreement, Newmont may immediately suspend these Standard Terms and Conditions and any Agreement in the event it should receive information which, in its sole discretion, it determines to be evidence of a breach by Supplier of any undertaking set forth above. In the event of receipt of such evidence and/or such suspension, Newmont shall consult with Supplier and may thereafter immediately terminate any agreement with Supplier if Newmont, in its sole discretion, is reasonably satisfied that such a breach has occurred. In the event of such termination, Newmont shall have no liability to Supplier under these Standard Terms and Conditions or any Agreement for any fees, reimbursements, or other compensation under these Standard Terms and Conditions or for any other loss, cost, claim, or damage resulting, directly or indirectly, to Supplier from such termination, other than for Services already performed and/or Goods already delivered.

7. Correction of Errors, Cancellations and Termination for Cause

7.1 Correction of Errors. If the Supplier fails to deliver any Goods or perform any Services within the deadlines specified in the Purchase Order or to provide Goods or perform Services in accordance with the specifications set out in the Purchase Order or the specifications and requirements provided by Newmont’s contact person at the Site, then Newmont may, at its option, without limitation: (a) extend the delivery period or allow a correction to be made; (b) suspend Newmont’s obligations under the Agreement until the failure to deliver is addressed to Newmont’s reasonable satisfaction or the error is corrected; (c) terminate the Agreement for Cause under section 7.4; or (d) return and request refund or re-performance in accordance with the Supplier’s Standard Terms, Services and Software Warranty set out in section 8.

7.2 Suspension of Payment. Without limiting Newmont’s other rights and remedies under an Agreement, Newmont may suspend any payment in whole or in part if the Supplier has not performed its obligations under the Agreement. If Newmont exercises its rights under this section 7.2, the Supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the Agreement unless Newmont otherwise agrees in writing.

7.3 Cancellation of Purchase Orders. Newmont may cancel a Purchase Order or the delivery of some of the Goods or Services referred to therein at any time prior to shipment/performance for its sole convenience. Upon written notice of such cancellation, the Supplier shall use all reasonable efforts to mitigate all costs or expenses incurred up to the date of cancellation, including immediately stop all production and shipment of any Goods and any Services referred to in the notice of cancellation and shall cause any applicable Supplier Related Parties to do the same. The Supplier shall invoice (in accordance with the billing method set out herein) and Newmont shall pay for the cost of Goods and/or Services delivered prior to the date of any such cancellation. The receipt of such payment from Newmont is the Supplier’s sole and exclusive remedy in respect of Newmont cancelling the Purchase Order in accordance with this section 7.3. No other payment of any kind whatsoever
7.4 Termination for Cause. An Agreement may be terminated by a non-breaching Party for Cause. “Cause” means (a) a material breach of the Agreement; (b) if a Party (deemed for purposes hereof to be the breaching Party) is adjudged insolvent, proposes a compromise or arrangement to its creditors generally, files for protection under or from an Agreement; (c) delinquent in its obligations to comply with applicable Laws; (d) a material breach of its obligation to comply with applicable Laws, or in breach of its obligation to comply with any Laws as required by the Agreement; (e) the Supplier is found by a governmental authority or a competent court to be guilty of bribery, corruption or offering inducements, or in breach of any other applicable Law; or (f) breach of the representations, warranties and covenants in Sections 6.2 and 6.3. No termination by Newmont or the Supplier for material breach of the Agreement shall be effective unless, within fifteen (15) days after receipt by a Party of the other Party’s notice specifying such material breach, the receiving Party shall have failed to cure such specified material breach to the reasonable satisfaction of the non-breaching Party. Termination of the Agreement in accordance with this section 7.4 shall be without cost or liability to the Party so terminating, and shall not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which will have accrued to any Party up to and including the date of such termination.

7.5 Obligations Upon Termination. Any right or obligation of a Party based on either performance or a breach of an Agreement prior to the effective date of termination of the Agreement shall survive the termination. Without limiting the scope of the preceding sentence, if Goods have been ordered by Newmont prior to a notice of termination given by the Supplier, then at the option of Newmont, the terms of the Agreement shall govern until final delivery, inspection and acceptance of the Goods and the Supplier shall (a) ensure that any Purchase Orders outstanding on the effective date of termination are timely filled; and (b) remove from the Site all equipment and materials owned by the Supplier. If the Goods are being sold to Newmont on the basis of installment deliveries and Newmont has the right to terminate the Agreement as provided in section 7.4, the termination of the Agreement shall apply to all installments not delivered prior to the effective date of termination.

8. Supplier's Standard Goods, Services and Software Warranty

8.1 Equipment and Services Warranty. The Supplier warrants that Equipment (excluding Software, which is warranted as specified in section 8.4 below) shall conform to any specifications set out in the Purchase Order and shall be delivered free of defects in material and workmanship and that Services shall be free of defects in workmanship. The warranty period for Equipment (the “Warranty Remedy Period”) for Equipment (excluding Software, spare parts and refurbished or repaired parts) shall end twelve (12) months after installation or eighteen (18) months after date of shipment, whichever first occurs. The Warranty Remedy Period for new spare parts shall end twelve (12) months after date of shipment. The Warranty Remedy Period for refurbished or repaired parts shall end ninety (90) days after date of shipment. The Warranty Remedy Period for Services shall end ninety (90) days after the date of acceptance of Services.

8.2 Equipment and Services Remedy. If a nonconformity to the foregoing warranty is discovered in the Equipment or Services during the applicable Warranty Remedy Period, as specified above, under normal and proper use and provided the Equipment has been properly stored, installed, operated and maintained and written notice of such nonconformity is provided to the Supplier promptly after such discovery and within the applicable Warranty Remedy Period, the Supplier shall, at Newmont’s election, either (i) repair or replace the nonconforming portion of the Equipment or perform the nonconforming Services or (ii) refund the portion of the price applicable to the nonconforming portion of Equipment or Services. If any portion of the Equipment or Services so repaired, replaced or re-performed fails to conform to the foregoing warranty, and written notice of such nonconformity is provided to the Supplier promptly after such discovery and within the applicable Warranty Remedy Period, the Supplier shall, at Newmont’s election, either (i) repair or replace the nonconforming portion of the Equipment or perform the nonconforming Services or (ii) refund the portion of the price applicable to the nonconforming portion of Equipment or Services. The original Warranty Remedy Period shall not otherwise be extended.

8.3 Exceptions. The Supplier shall not be responsible for providing working access to the nonconforming Equipment, including disassembly and re-assembly of non-Supplier supplied equipment, or for providing transportation to or from any repair facility, all of which shall be at Newmont’s risk and expense. The Supplier shall have no obligation hereunder with respect to any Equipment which (i) has been repaired or altered; (ii) has been subjected to misuse, negligence or accident; (iii) has been used in a manner contrary to the Supplier’s instructions; or (iv) has failed as a result of ordinary wear and tear.

8.4 Software Warranty and Remedies. The Supplier warrants that, except as specified below, the Software will, when properly installed, execute in accordance with the Supplier’s published specification and any other specifications set out in the Purchase Order. If a nonconformity to the foregoing warranty is discovered during the period ending one (1) year after the date of installation and written notice of such nonconformity is provided to the Supplier promptly after such discovery and within that period, including a description of the nonconformity and complete information about the manner of its discovery, the Supplier shall correct the nonconformity by, at its option, either (i) modifying or making available to Newmont instructions for modifying the Software; or (ii) making available at the Supplier’s facility necessary corrected or replacement programs. The Supplier shall have no obligation with respect to any nonconformities (i) resulting from unauthorized modification of the Software or (ii) Newmont-supplied software or interfacing that has not been authorized by the Supplier to be utilized with the Software. Except as set out in manuals or other documentation associated with the Software, the Supplier does not warrant that the functions contained in the software will operate in combinations which may be selected for use by Newmont. The Supplier warrants that as of the time of delivery of the software products or performance of the Services, the deliverables and the Services do not contain any computer virus, computer worm, Trojan horse, authorisation key, licence control utility, software lock or any similar coding.

9. Insurance

9.1 During the Term and for such additional period(s) of time as required herein, Supplier shall have in effect the following insurance coverages:

(a) Worker’s Compensation and Employer’s Liability Insurance, covering all claims by or in respect of the employees of Supplier providing:

(i) Coverage for the statutory limits as required by applicable Laws;

(ii) Sufficient endorsements to extend the full policy coverage to all areas in which operations, delivery of Goods and Services are to be conducted hereunder (including if applicable, international operations); and

(iii) Employer’s Liability Insurance with minimum limits of $1,000,000 for all personal injuries and death in one (1) accident.

(b) Commercial and General Liability Insurance with a limit of not less than $5,000,000 for each occurrence and $5,000,000 in annual aggregate. This Commercial General Liability Insurance shall include:

(i) Where an exposure exists, explosion, collapse and underground (XCU) coverage; and

(ii) Cross-liability coverage. If Supplier’s liability policy(ies) does not contain a separation of insured provision, it shall be endorsed to provide cross-liability coverage.

Sections 9.1(c) through 9.1(g), below, apply only if applicable, as specified within the language of each such section.

(c) Automobile Liability Insurance, covering owned, non-owned and hired vehicles which either are used by Supplier on Newmont premises or are otherwise used in the performance of the supply of the Goods or Services, covering bodily-injury and property damage, with a combined single limit of not less than $5,000,000 each occurrence.

(d) Comprehensive Aircraft Liability Insurance, if any of the supply of the Goods or Services involved use of a chartered or private aircraft, carried by Supplier or, if Supplier is not the owner of the aircraft, by the aircraft owner, including Passenger Liability without any seat limitation, with limits of not less than $4,000,000 per seat, combined single limit for bodily injury and property damage, per occurrence.

(e) Professional Indemnity/Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance, for any of the Services which involve medical, legal, accounting, engineering, or similar types of professional services which are typically insurable under professional indemnity policies, covering liability for financial loss or damage due to an act, error, omission, breach of duty, or negligence resulting from errors or omissions in the delivery of professional services with a minimum limit per event of $5,000,000.

(f) Medical, Accident, and Travel Insurance, covering all Supplier If Supplier personnel will travel, in connection with performance of the Services, outside of the individual’s country of residence or to any mine site or exploration site, including coverage of any cost associated with comprehensive emergency medical evacuation, treatment, and repatriation, including repatriation of mortal remains and any costs related thereto. In the alternative, Supplier may choose not to obtain the insurance required by this section 9.1(g), in which event, Supplier shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each Newmont Party against and from any and all Claims and Losses incurred in connection with Supplier personnel traveling, in connection with the performance of the Services, outside of the individual’s country of residence or to any mine site or exploration site; provided, however, that the foregoing indemnification shall not apply to the extent such Claim or Loss arises out of or is caused by Newmont’s negligence or willful misconduct.

(g) Marine Hull and Protection & Indemnity Insurance, if Supplier is chartering a vessel in connection with the performance of the Services, for full loss or damage coverage of not less than the value of the vessel in use. All chartered vessels must be members of the International Protection & Indemnity Association Group.

If Supplier is performing procurement Services under this Agreement, unless Supplier is otherwise directed by Newmont, Newmont shall arrange Marine Transit and/or Inland Transit Insurance coverage that insures all materials and equipment procured on Newmont’s behalf that are transported by air, sea, or land from any place in the world to the site at which the Services are being performed or other approved point of delivery. If directed by Newmont, Supplier shall obtain such insurance.

9.2 Supplier shall deliver to Newmont, at least five (5) business days prior to commencement of the Services or commencement of the supply of the Goods, certificates of insurance for all of the above required insurance policies containing the following:

(a) Evidence that coverage is on an occurrence, not claims made, basis (not required for Professional Indemnity/Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance);

(b) Evidence that Newmont is listed as an additional insured or has its interest noted on the insurance policy with respect to the Commercial General Liability insurance, Automobile Liability insurance, and Comprehensive Aircraft Liability insurance and that Newmont Corporation is listed as an additional insured or has its interest noted on the insurance policy with respect to Comprehensive Aircraft Liability Insurance;

(c) The statement that the insurance provider has waived subrogation rights with respect to Newmont (not required for Professional Indemnity/Errors and Omissions Liability Insurance);

(d) A statement that the policy will not be materially changed or canceled without at least thirty (30) days prior written notice, by registered or certified mail, to Newmont.

9.4 The effecting of the insurance set out herein shall not be in any way limit, alter, or affect the liability and obligations of Supplier under any Agreement.

9.5 Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, any policies written on a claims made basis must provide coverage in respect of claims arising out of any Agreement or these Standard Terms and Conditions for at least 5 years from the expiration or termination of the Agreement.

9.6 In the event that Supplier is permitted to subcontract any of the Services or the supply of the Goods, Supplier shall require the types and limits of insurance coverage set forth in this Section (or such other coverage as may be acceptable to Newmont) from such subcontractors and shall require and ensure that such subcontractors certify insurance coverage to Newmont prior to commencement of any Services or supply of Goods. In the event that any third party supplier is going to go onto Newmont premises in connection with the Services or supply of the Goods, Supplier shall require the types and limits of insurance coverage for Worker’s Compensation and Employer’s Liability Insurance, General Commercial Liability Insurance and Automobile Insurance set out in this Section (or such other coverage as may be acceptable to Newmont) from such third party supplier and shall require and ensure that such third party suppliers certify insurance coverage to Newmont prior to commencement of any Services or supply of the Goods.

9.7 Supplier shall effect all insurance policies required under this Section with insurance providers that have a Best rating of B+ XII (or equivalent) or better. Should any insurance company which is providing insurance required by any Agreement or these Standard Terms and Conditions fall below a Best B+ or XII (or equivalent) rating, Supplier shall promptly give Notice to Newmont and, as soon as practicable, effect coverage with another insurance provider that has a Best rating of B+ XII (or equivalent) or better.

9.8 Supplier may insure or self-insure its own tools, plant and equipment as it deems appropriate. Whether Supplier insures of self-insures such tools and equipment, Supplier hereby releases from liability, and waives all rights of recovery (including rights of subrogation) from and against each Newmont Party for all loss or damage to such tools and equipment irrespective of the theory upon which any claim is brought. Supplier shall include in all subcontracts a provisions equivalent to this Section affording Newmont a release from and waver of liability for loss or damage to a subcontractor’s tools and equipment.

10. Force Majeure

10.1 Force Majeure. No Party shall be liable for any delay or non-performance, other than for non-payment of money, resulting from acts of God, labour disturbances, strikes and lockouts, casualty, severe weather conditions, war, riots, acts of a public enemy or terrorist, civil disorder, earthquakes, insurrections, freight embargoes, custom delays at the port of shipment or destination, unforeseeable and irresistible event or other condition or occurrence of a similar nature beyond the Party’s reasonable control, provided that such delay or non-performance could not have been prevented by reasonable precautions (including back-up systems) and cannot reasonably be circumvented by the non-performing Party through the use of alternate sources, work-around plans or reasonable security procedures and practices that are both reasonable and necessary.

11. Notices

11.1 Notices. All notices or other communications which are required or permitted to be given to the Parties under an Agreement shall be sufficient in all respects if given in writing and delivered in person or by electronic mail, facsimile, courier or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, to the receiving Party at the address shown in the applicable Purchase Order or to such other address as the receiving Party may have given to the other Party by notice in writing. Notice shall be deemed given on the date of delivery, in the case of personal delivery, electronic mail, or facsimile, or on the delivery or refusal date as specified on the return receipt in the case of certified mail or on the tracking report in the case of delivery by courier.

12.1 Confidential Information. (a) During the term of an Agreement Newmont may disclose to the Supplier or the Supplier may otherwise acquire certain technical, operational, commercial, legal, pricing information or technical know-how of a confidential nature about Newmont or Newmont Related Parties (“Confidential Information”). Such Confidential Information will either be indicated to be confidential or will evidently be so because of its nature.

(b) For purposes of these Standard Terms and Conditions, “Personal Data” means information regarding any individual (whether an employee or agent of Newmont, its affiliates, or contractors of it or its affiliates, or other individuals) recorded in any format, which is obtained by Supplier in connection with an Agreement and that identifies or could identify an individual personally, either by itself or together with other information, including demographic information such as name, sex, age and contact information, financial information such as taxpayer identification numbers and bank account information, and health information such as medical records and insurance claims.

(c) Supplier shall, for as long as it has possession of any Personal Data or other Confidential Information (collectively, “Sensitive Information”) on Supplier’s information technology systems, maintain reasonable security procedures and practices that are both (1) appropriate to the nature of the Sensitive Information, and (2) reasonably designed to help protect the Sensitive Information from unauthorized access, use, modification, disclosure, or destruction.

(d) The Supplier shall keep in confidence and prevent the unauthorized disclosure of all such Sensitive Information except Sensitive Information (a) which is required to be disclosed by applicable Laws, court orders, court proceedings or the rules or policies of any stock exchange or government or regulatory authority having jurisdiction; (b) which is in the public domain at the date of the applicable Purchase Order or which becomes a part of the public domain after the date of the applicable Purchase Order or which becomes a part of the public domain after the date of the applicable Purchase Order other than through a breach of the Agreement by the Supplier; (c) which has become known to the Supplier independently on a non-confidential basis, whether before or after the date of the applicable Purchase Order, other than through a breach of the Agreement by the Supplier or by a third party subject to any confidentiality agreement between the third party and Newmont; or (d) which was independently developed by the Supplier without reference to Sensitive Information received hereunder, provided, however, that the foregoing exceptions shall not apply with respect to Confidential...
Information that meets the definition of Personal Data. The Supplier shall not make any use of Sensitive Information of Newmont for any purpose other than on a need-to-know basis for the purpose of performing its obligations or deliver the Goods and/or Services under an Agreement, or for the purpose for which the Sensitive Information was provided by Newmont. The obligations under this section 12.1 shall survive the termination of any Agreement in connection with these Standard Terms and Conditions. The Supplier agrees that upon written request by Newmont, it will promptly return or destroy (such destruction shall be certified by the Supplier in writing) all Sensitive Information and copies thereof and shall require each of the Supplier Related Parties to do so likewise. The Supplier acknowledges that the Sensitive Information is proprietary and confidential and that the harm suffered by Newmont would not be compensable by monetary damages alone and, accordingly, in addition to other available legal or equitable remedies, Newmont shall be entitled to apply for an injunction or specific performance with respect to such breach or threatened breach, without proof of actual damages.

(c) Supplier immediately shall notify Newmont if it becomes aware, or has reason to believe, that any breach of this Section has occurred, that any unauthorized access to or use of, or any security breach relating to or otherwise affecting, any Sensitive Information has occurred, or that any person who has had access to Sensitive Information has violated or intends to violate the terms of these Standard Terms and Conditions. Supplier shall, at its own expense, cooperate with Newmont in investigating and responding to the foregoing.

12.2 Export Control.

(a) Supplier shall notify Newmont in advance if any item or information to be provided to Newmont by Supplier under or otherwise in connection with an Agreement is subject to the United States’, Canada’s, or any other country’s export control Laws and, upon Newmont’s request, shall provide Newmont with all information Supplier has which relates to the export controls applicable to such item or information (e.g., information relating to applicable jurisdiction and classification determinations). Notwithstanding any obligation to the contrary which may be otherwise associated with any Incoterm that is applicable thereto, for all international deliveries of items and information by Supplier under an Agreement, Supplier shall be the exporter of record and shall comply with all export control Laws relating thereto. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing sentence, for all such international deliveries, Supplier shall be responsible for reviewing and classifying such items and information under the export compliance Laws for all applicable countries of export, for determining whether an export license is required for each international delivery and/or whether any export license exception applies thereto, for obtaining all such required export licenses, and for all export reporting (e.g., EEI in AES for U.S. exports) and any other requirements to effect export clearance. Notwithstanding any contrary “ship to” address listed in any applicable Purchase Order or use by Newmont of a freight forwarder, Supplier acknowledges that the ultimate delivery destination of any items or information provided by it hereunder is Canada.

(b) Supplier acknowledges that, as a controlled subsidiary of Newmont Corporation, Newmont is subject to Newmont Corporation’s U.S. Export Compliance Standard which prohibits Newmont from receiving any items or information originating in any of the following countries: The Crimea Region of Ukraine, Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan, Syria. Supplier represents and covenants that none of the items or information to be provided to Newmont pursuant to any Agreement will originate in any of such countries. Nothing in these Standard Terms and Conditions or any Agreement shall require Newmont to commit an act or omission that contravenes the laws of Canada.

12.3 Use of Newmont Name and Public Announcements. The Supplier shall not use and shall ensure that no Supplier Related Party uses the name of Newmont Corporation or any of its Affiliates in any sales promotion, advertising or other publication without Newmont’s prior written consent. Supplier shall not make news or media releases or issue other advertising pertaining to any Agreement or otherwise referencing the name or logo of Newmont or any of its Affiliates without first obtaining the written approval of Newmont.

12.4 Assignment. An Agreement may not be assigned by the Supplier in whole or in part without the prior written consent of Newmont, which consent may in Newmont’s absolute discretion be withheld. Unless otherwise agreed by the Parties in writing, the Supplier shall remain liable to Newmont in the event that a permitted assignee cannot perform its obligations hereunder.

12.5 Relationship between Parties. Nothing contained in an Agreement shall be construed as creating a joint venture or partnership or employment or fiduciary relationship between the Parties to the Agreement. No Party shall have the power to control the activities or operations of the other Party, and their status shall at all times be that of independent contractors. No Party shall hold itself out as having any authority or relationship in contravention of this section. Nothing in an Agreement shall entitle the Supplier or Supplier Related Parties to receive the benefits (including but not limited to medical, life, accident or disability insurance, pensions, unemployment or workers’ compensation or profit sharing plans) received by employees of Newmont or Newmont Related Parties, or otherwise require Newmont or Newmont Related Parties to pay, in respect of Supplier Related Parties, any income taxes or social security or similar or related contributions.

12.6 Sustainability & Social Responsibility. Supplier understands that Newmont is committed to conducting all of its mining operations and related activities in an environmentally and socially responsible manner. To that end, Supplier shall make all community investments and efforts (i) to perform the Services and/or deliver the Goods in a manner aligned with such principles, including the use of pollution-controlled equipment and facilities, if and as applicable, (ii) to assess the potential impact of its activities on local communities and, when applicable, to integrate mitigation measures into its work plans, including ensuring that such measures are appropriately budgeted, (iii) to timely address third party complaints received by it in connection with any work or goods provided hereunder (including from employees, subcontractors, suppliers, and local community members), (iv) to identify opportunities that incorporate local procurement and employment, and (v) to the extent involving activities conducted for or on behalf of Newmont to coordinate engagement with local community stakeholders through Newmont’s site-level Social Responsibility department.

12.7 Audit.

(a) Upon Newmont’s request, Supplier promptly shall provide Newmont with information relating to Supplier processes and activities that may pose a reputational risk to Newmont in order to allow Newmont to conduct an audit of the same, and shall allow Newmont
12.8 Risk Management. Supplier shall participate in all reasonable contract performance management activities that may be requested by Newmont (for example: operational review meetings, contract review meetings, key performance indicator discussions, etc.), with the grade level of involved personnel (e.g., executive, manager, or other) and the nature and frequency of such activities to be as reasonably determined by Newmont. To the extent risks are reasonably identified by Newmont in connection with any such management activities (including as a result of information provided by Supplier to Newmont on Newmont’s risk control assessment form), Supplier promptly shall implement and actively manage the mitigations activities requested of it by Newmont in connection with managing such risks.

12.9 Further Assurances. The Parties to an Agreement shall cooperate fully with each other and execute such further instruments, documents, and agreements and shall give such further written assurances as may be reasonably requested by the other Party to better evidence and reflect the transactions described herein and contemplated hereby, and to carry into effect the intent and purposes of the Agreement.

12.10 Amendments. An Agreement may not be modified or amended except by an instrument in writing (including Change Orders) signed by the Supplier and Newmont.

12.11 Severability. If any of the provisions of an Agreement shall for any reason be held void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

12.12 Governing Law. Unless the Parties to an Agreement otherwise agree in writing, (a) the Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of Québec and the Laws of Canada applicable therein. The Parties voluntarily submit to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Quebec situated in Montréal, Québec.

12.14 Waiver. The failure of one (1) Party to insist upon the strict performance of any provision of an Agreement or to exercise any right, power, or remedy upon a breach thereof shall not constitute a waiver of that or any other provision of the Agreement or limit that Party’s right thereafter to enforce any provision or exercise any right.

12.15 Remedies. Except as otherwise expressly provided in the Purchase Order, the rights, powers and remedies of each Party shall be cumulative. Without limiting any other remedy available at law or in equity, if an Agreement is breached, injunctions, restraining orders, specific performance and other forms of equitable relief shall be available in the discretion of a court of competent jurisdiction.

12.16 Survival of Terms and Conditions. The provisions of Sections 1, 2, 3, 9, 3.10, 4.12, 4.15, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9 and 12 and any other provisions which by their nature ought to survive termination or expiration, will survive termination or expiration of an Agreement, however and whenever occurring.

12.17 Parties Bound by Agreement. Each Agreement is binding upon the Parties thereto and upon their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors and permitted assigns.

12.18 Language. The Parties hereto have expressly required that each Agreement and all documents and notices relating thereto be drafted in the English language. Les Parties conviennent et exigent expression que cette convention et tous les documents qui s’y rapportent soient rédigés en langue anglaise.

12.19 Intellectual Property Indemnity. (a) The Supplier shall indemnify and save harmless Newmont and Newmont Related Parties from and against all Claims and Losses arising from or incurred by reason of any claim that the use of the Goods, Services or any other deliverables supplied by the Supplier constitutes an infringement or misappropriation of any patent, trade-mark or other intellectual property rights of a third party. (b) If Newmont becomes subject to a claim set forth in (a) above, the Supplier, without limiting its indemnification obligations, shall at its option and its own expense, procure for Newmont the right to continue using said Goods, Service or deliverable; or modify or replace them with non-infringing deliverables/equipment; or remove it and refund the portion of the price allocable to the infringing Goods/Services.

12.20 General Indemnities. The Supplier agrees to indemnify and save harmless Newmont and Newmont Related Parties from and against any and all Claims and Losses arising from or incurred by reason of any of the following events (including the defence of such events): (a) any negligent act or omission of, or willful misconduct by the Supplier or any Supplier Related Parties; (b) any breach by the Supplier or any Supplier Related Parties of an Agreement; (c) any injury or death to person or damage or destruction to property caused by the Supplier or any Supplier Related Parties. Newmont shall promptly give the Supplier notice of any such claim (although failure to so promptly notify the Supplier shall only relieve the Supplier of its obligations to the extent it is prejudiced). The Supplier may, by notifying Newmont, assume the entire control of the defense and settlement of the claims (provided that any settlement of such claims by the Supplier requires the prior written approval of Newmont and shall include a full release of claims against Newmont and Newmont Related Parties);

12.21 Dispute. If the Parties have a dispute relating to an Agreement, then either Party may give written notice of the dispute to the other Party, in which case the Parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to negotiate a resolution to the dispute. If the dispute is not resolved within five (5) business days after delivery of the above notice, then the dispute shall be referred to and exclusively resolved with finality by arbitration administered by a single arbitrator under the Québec Civil Code, L.Q. 1991, c. 64. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Party may apply to a court of competent jurisdiction for interim protection or equitable relief such as an interlocutory or interim injunction. The place of arbitration shall be Montréal, Québec. The arbitrator must be qualified with respect to the matter in dispute and must not be related to either Party. The Parties agree that the arbitration shall be kept confidential and that the existence of the proceeding and any element of it (including but not limited to any pleadings, briefs or other documents submitted or exchanged, any testimony or other oral submissions, and any awards) shall not be disclosed beyond the arbitrator, the Parties, their counsel and any person necessary for the conduct of the proceeding, except as may be lawfully required in judicial proceedings relating to the arbitration or otherwise. Any documents marked “without prejudice” and exchanged in an effort to negotiate a settlement to the dispute shall not be admitted as part of the arbitration. The Parties shall continue performing their obligations under this Agreement during the dispute resolution or arbitration process, until this Agreement (or the applicable Purchase Order) is terminated pursuant to its terms.
