Bergen Brunswig Drug Company Announces Five-Year Contract With Comprehensive Pharmacy Services

January 31, 2001

Orange, CA -- January 31, 2001 -- Bergen Brunswig Drug Company (BBDC), a subsidiary of Bergen Brunswig Corporation (NYSE: BBC), today announced a new, five-year prime vendor agreement to provide pharmaceuticals and related services to the acute care, psychiatric and correctional systems pharmacy customers of Memphis-based Comprehensive Pharmacy Services, Inc. (CPS) -- the nation's largest independently owned pharmacy outsource services provider.

The agreement, effective February 1, 2001, is expected to generate incremental revenue of more than $400 million over the life of the contract.

"We are very proud to announce this new relationship with CPS, a respected partner whose key strategies for growth are closely aligned with our own," said Doug Swanson, president, BBDC Health Systems. "We have a unique opportunity to expand each other's offering and market reach and generate incremental earnings beyond the base distribution value."

According to CPS president Louis P. Bradley, the agreement reflects CPS' confidence in Bergen's core competencies and long history of service excellence.

"Ultimately, we were compelled by Bergen's strategic orientation and demonstrated capabilities that go well beyond service excellence," Bradley said.

"This new relationship creates powerful possibilities for both organizations."

Don Clarfeld, executive vice president, BBDC Health Systems, added, "We expect to leverage the synergies within our clinical and pharmacy business solutions areas to provide consulting programs and improved service to CPS's growing customer base. This agreement adds to our portfolio and further differentiates each company's competitive offering to the marketplace."
