PharMerica Announces Tentative Settlement of Hawaii Class Action Case

January 27, 2005

VALLEY FORGE, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 27, 2005--PharMerica, Inc., a subsidiary of AmerisourceBergen Corporation (NYSE:ABC), today announced that a tentative settlement was reached in the Helbig, et. al. vs. Interstate Pharmacy Corporation (IPC), et. al. class action suit pending in Hawaii state court. The settlement cannot become final until the court approves the agreed-upon terms.

Under the terms of the settlement, PharMerica will pay $2 million to a fund for class action members and $1.2 million to the University of Hawaii for programs benefiting senior citizens. Any unclaimed monies in the fund established for the class action members also will be distributed to the University of Hawaii for this purpose.

The allegations in the class action suit alleged that prior to February 2000, PharMerica’s IPC pharmacy in Hawaii accepted returned medications and reissued them for other patients in violation of Hawaii law. There were no allegations of physical harm to any patient. Since that time, the law in Hawaii has been changed to permit the use of returned medications under certain conditions.

PharMerica, one of the nation's leading pharmacy providers to the long-term care setting, supplies medication and related services to more than 220,000 nursing home residents in 37 states.
