AmerisourceBergen Provides Update on Integration Plans, Financial Guidance; Company targets 20% annual EPS growth before merger and acquisition costs

September 10, 2001
Annual synergies expected to be $150 million by the end of third year

VALLEY FORGE, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Sept. 10, 2001--AmerisourceBergen Corporation (NYSE:ABC) today announced an overview of its strategic plan to integrate the operations of AmeriSource Health Corporation and Bergen Brunswig Corporation.

The Company also provided updated financial guidance for AmerisourceBergen. The merger of AmeriSource and Bergen Brunswig, two leading pharmaceutical services companies, was completed on August 29, 2001.

AmerisourceBergen said it expects to achieve $150 million in annual synergies within three years, with the majority of the savings occurring in years two and three. The savings are expected to come from consolidation of distribution centers ($50 million), enhanced efficiency of distribution facilities ($30 million), procurement ($30 million), administration and information technology ($35 million), and $5 million in other savings.

The integration strategy has three phases. Upon completion, the Company expects to have approximately 30 distribution centers, down from 51 today. Approximately four to six distribution facilities are expected to be closed in the first year. In addition, four-to-eight new facilities will be built.

Financial Guidance

AmerisourceBergen said its long-term financial goals are:

- Revenue growth of at least 15%
- Earnings before interest and taxes growth of at least 15%
- Earnings per share growth of at least 20%, before merger and acquisition costs
- Return on committed capital of at least 20% in each business segment

The Company said it expects to incur $10 million to $15 million of merger-related costs in the September quarter of fiscal 2001. AmerisourceBergen also said the elimination of goodwill under new accounting rules adds $0.13 to $0.14 to earnings per share in fiscal 2002.

"This is an exciting time for AmerisourceBergen as we hit the ground running," said David Yost, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We see tremendous potential for the new AmerisourceBergen in terms of providing enhanced services for customers and suppliers. Our updated financial guidance, including the goal of a 20% increase in EPS before merger costs, reflects the strategic strength of our combined company as well as the substantial opportunities for us in this $160 billion market."

Mr. Yost continued, "Our integration planning is on track. Our thorough review of the synergy opportunities has also enabled us to increase our expectations to $150 million in annual synergies by the end of the third year. The consolidation strategy we are executing truly brings together the best of both companies, including a regional organization structure with empowered local management."
