

MAJORITY VOTING POLICY

The board of directors (the “Board”) of GFL Environmental Inc. (the “Company”) believes that each of its members should carry the confidence and support of the Company’s shareholders. To this end, the Board has unanimously adopted this statement of policy.

In an uncontested election (as defined below) of directors of the Company, each director should be elected by the vote of a majority of the shares represented in person or by proxy at the shareholders meeting convened for such election of directors. Accordingly, if any nominee for the Board receives a greater number of votes “withheld” from his or her election than votes “for” such election, that director shall promptly tender his or her resignation to the chair of the Board following the meeting of shareholders at which the director was elected.

The Nomination, Governance and Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) shall consider any such offer of resignation and recommend to the Board whether or not to accept it. Any director who has tendered his or her resignation shall not participate in the deliberations of either the Committee or the Board at which his or her resignation is considered. In its deliberations, the Committee may consider any stated reasons as to why shareholders “withheld” votes from the election of the relevant director, the effect such resignation may have on the Company’s ability to comply with applicable corporate or securities law requirements, applicable regulations or commercial agreements regarding the composition, the dynamics of the Board, and any other factors that the members of the Committee consider relevant.

The Board must promptly accept the resignation unless it determines, in consultation with the Committee, that there are exceptional circumstances that should delay the acceptance of the resignation or justify rejecting it. The Board shall, after considering the factors identified by the Committee and any other factors that the Board considers relevant, make its decision and announce such decision through a press release within 90 days following the applicable shareholders meeting. A copy of the press release shall be concurrently delivered to any stock exchange upon which the Company’s securities are listed. If the Board declines to accept the resignation, it should fully state the reasons for its decision in the press release. The resignation of a director will be effective when accepted by the Board.

Forms of proxy provided for use at any shareholders meeting where directors are to be elected should enable the shareholders to vote in favour of, or to withhold from voting in respect of, each nominee separately. The results of the vote should be filed on SEDAR+, and EDGAR if applicable.

Subject to any applicable corporate law restrictions or securities law requirements, the investor rights agreements and the articles and by-laws of the Company, if a resignation is accepted, the Board may leave the resulting vacancy unfilled until the next annual general meeting of shareholders. Alternatively, it may fill the vacancy through the appointment of a new director whom the Board considers to merit the confidence of the shareholders, or it may call a special meeting of shareholders at which there will be presented a management nominee or nominees to fill the vacant position or positions.

In this policy, an “uncontested election” means an election of directors of the Company where the number of nominees for election as a director equals the number of directors to be elected. It shall not apply where an election involves a proxy battle i.e., where proxy materials are circulated, a solicitation of proxies is carried out and/or other public communications are disseminated in support of one or more nominees who are not part of the director nominees supported by the Board or public communications are disseminated, against one or more nominees who are supported by the Board.

The Board may, from time to time, permit departures from the terms of this policy, either prospectively or retrospectively. This policy is not intended to give rise to civil liability on the part of the Company or its directors or officers to shareholders, security holders, customers, suppliers, competitors, employees or other persons, or to any other liability whatsoever on their part.
