“Invest in Yourself” Wellness Program Provides Solid Returns for OMAM

$221 Billion Global Multi-Boutique Asset Manager Named Healthiest Employer

London – March 31, 2015 – OM Asset Management plc (NYSE:OMAM) was honored by the Boston Business Journal as Healthiest Employer among small companies. OMAM was recognized for its Invest in Yourself initiative, a multi-tiered program that incorporates both physical and financial wellness to create a culture of health.

The Invest in Yourself initiative includes biometric screening, walking workstations, standing desks, annual savings for health insurance premiums, wellness coaching and healthy cooking demonstrations. Other health-oriented elements of OMAM’s award winning program include wellness challenges, educational webinars and flu prevention shots. In addition to traditional wellness topics, the program includes financial and 401(k) seminars.

Invest in Yourself is offered to OMAM employees as well as their spouses, domestic partners and dependents age 18 or older.

The success metrics of OMAM’s Invest in Yourself campaign are evident:

- The number of participants with high blood pressure has decreased by 24 percent;
- The number of those with lower back pain fell by 20 percent;
- Participation in the program increased to 94 percent in 2014, compared to 80 percent in 2013.

“Invest in Yourself encourages all of us to live healthier lives,” said Peter Bain, OMAM’s President and Chief Executive Officer. “Financial and personal wellness go hand in hand, and we think it is important that our employees have the necessary tools to lead lives that are as healthy as possible.”

“Our model program encourages our people to incorporate wellness activities into their everyday work environment in ways that allow them to become more physically and financially fit,” said Michelle Freeman, OMAM’s Senior Vice President of Talent and Rewards. “As a result, our employees lead more balanced, healthy lives - a win for employees and for the company.”
