- 1. *Nomination of Directors. To identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve on the Company's Board consistent with criteria set forth in the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines and approved by the Board, including consideration of any potential conflicts of interest as well as applicable independence and experience requirements. The Committee shall also have the primary responsibility for reviewing, evaluating and considering the recommendation for nomination of incumbent directors for re-election to the Board, as well as monitoring the size of the Board. The Committee shall also recommend candidates to the Board for appointment or to serve as nominees for director for the annual meeting of stockholders. - 2. *Assessment of Management and Board. To periodically review, discuss and assess the performance of management and the Board, including Board committees, seeking input from senior management, the full Board and others. The assessment shall include evaluation of the Board's contribution as a whole and effectiveness in serving the best interests of the Company and its stockholders, specific areas in which the Board and/or management believe contributions could be improved, and overall Board composition and makeup, including the reelection of current Board members. The factors to be considered shall include whether the directors, both individually and collectively, can and do provide the integrity, experience, judgment, commitment, skills and expertise appropriate for the Company. The Committee shall also consider and assess the independence of directors, including whether a majority of the Board continue to be independent from management in both fact and appearance and in accordance with the requirements of the NYSE. The results of these reviews shall be provided to the Board for further discussion as appropriate.

3. Board Committee Nominations. To oversee the Board's committee structure and operations, which may be delegated to subcommittees and committees reporting to the Board. The Committee, after due consideration of the interests, independence and experience of the individual directors and the independence and experience requirements of the NYSE, the rules and regulations of the SEC and applicable law, shall recommend to the entire Board annually the chairmanship and membership of each committee.
4. Director Orientation and Continuing Education. To implement an orientation process for directors that includes background material on the Company's policies and procedures, meetings with senior management and visits to Company facilities, and, in the Committee's discretion, to institute a plan or program for the continuing education of directors.

7. Management Succession. To periodically review with the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Operating Officer the plans for succession for the Company's executive
