

10,000+ equipment items to be sold in massive five-day Edmonton auction

4/12/2016

Thousands of items from every sector; all of it to sell without minimum bids or reserve prices

EDMONTON, April 12, 2016 /CNW/ - For weeks, the Ritchie Bros. crew in Edmonton, Alberta has been working hard getting everything lined up and ready for the thousands of bidders expected come auction time in April. With just two weeks until the auction begins, equipment still arrives daily to the massive site located just outside Alberta's capital.

The Edmonton auction in April is traditionally the company's largest Canadian auction of the year, and this year is the biggest yet. On April 26 – 30, 2016, Ritchie Bros. will sell more than 10,000 items in Edmonton, including 235+ excavators, 210+ compactors, 190+ loaders, 180+ dozers, 260 truck tractors, 1,000+ trailers, and a lot more.

"The selection of trucks and equipment we are offering this year is unmatched anywhere," said Brian Glenn, Senior Vice President, Ritchie Bros. "Whether you're looking to purchase a single item or an entire fleet, we have what you need—and every item will be sold with no reserve prices or minimum bids."
