May report includes 2021 agricultural equipment sales trends: tractor prices up 9% in Canada

VANCOUVER, BC, May 10, 2021 /CNW/ - With record online demand, Ritchie Bros. continues to see positive price performance in all its auctions and marketplaces. The company's May 2021 Used Equipment Market Trends Summary report shows U.S. truck tractor pricing up 24% year-over-year, while U.S. medium earthmoving equipment pricing is up 19%, and U.S. aerial equipment is up 14%.

"All of our price indexes are showing gains," said Doug Olive, Senior Vice President, Pricing, Ritchie Bros. "With the large quantity of ag equipment sold at this time of year we have added a general agriculture and an agricultural tractor index with our May report—both indexes are showing year over year inflation in the high single digits. This echoes the pricing strength we are experiencing in construction and transportation right now."

This month's Ritchie Bros. Used Equipment Market Trends Summary report has a special focus on agricultural equipment, including detailed breakdowns of tractor, combine, header, sprayer, and grain truck/trailer sales. Spring is a busy time for farm auctions. In fact, Ritchie Bros. recently conducted 71 farm auctions in 30 days, generating CA$104+ million in gross transaction value. These farm auctions attracted 160,000+ bidders and 1.6+ million online pageviews—this unprecedented demand resulted in strong pricing across almost every farm equipment category.
