

Ritchie Bros.' first-ever two-day auction in Lethbridge

7/11/2016

1,500+ items will be sold on July 21 - 22, including farm & oilfield transportation equipment

LETHBRIDGE, AB, July 11, 2016 /CNW/ - After record-breaking Alberta auctions in Edmonton and Grande Prairie in 2016, Ritchie Bros. is preparing for yet another milestone with its first-ever two-day auction in Lethbridge on July 21 - 22.

This will be Ritchie Bros. most diverse Lethbridge auction yet, with 1,500+ items already listed to be sold—and more items being added daily. Traditionally Ritchie Bros. auctions in Lethbridge have been agriculture-based, but this month's sale features more construction and transportation equipment than ever before. Highlights include 70+ headers, 35+ agricultural tractors, 20+ combines, and 20+ swathers, as well as bed and boom trucks, winch tractors, excavators, cranes, dozers, truck tractors, heavy-spec trailers, and much more.

"We've been conducting regular auctions in Lethbridge for a long time, and they continue to grow in size, scale and diversity, so we renovated our site in 2015 to provide better facilities for our buying and selling customers," said Simon Wallan, Vice President, Ritchie Bros. "Our July auction in Lethbridge features more than 600 farm equipment items, as well as a great selection of oilfield transportation equipment, construction equipment and more. Every item will be sold unreserved—there are no minimum bids or reserve prices."

Equipment in the auction will be sold for close to 200 companies, including a complete dispersal for Jackson Agribusiness Ltd. and a major realignment for Omega Transport Services.
