VANCOUVER, BC, Sept. 9, 2020 /CNW/ - With billions of dollars of equipment transacting via multiple sales channels each year, Ritchie Bros. has the data and in-house expertise to provide unmatched insight into industry trends. The company shares these insights via its Market Trends module within its Ritchie Bros. Asset Solutions suite of tools, allowing customers, investors, and analysts to better understand the strength of an asset class through in-depth analysis of Ritchie Bros. transaction history, including market trends, equipment price performance, supply and demand geography, and mix-adjusted price indexes.

Each month, Ritchie Bros. publishes a free, high-level, downloadable report of these pricing trends, broken out by industry. The September report is now available for download here: ritchiebros.com/market-trends-report. The full Market Trends module is available by paid subscription.

"While most product groups continue to show prices somewhat lower this year versus last, all groups in this month's report show moderating deflation or price parity," said Ken Calhoon, Vice President, Data Analytics, Ritchie Bros. "With farm crop harvest on the horizon, we provide additional insights into the Canadian combine market this month. Over the past year and half, we have sold more than 600 combines for $85 million."
