VANCOUVER, BC, March 2, 2021 /CNW/ - Ritchie Bros. has been selling used commercial assets for decades, resulting in a wealth of in-house expertise and a massive amount of equipment, pricing, and demand data. Over the past several years the company has used this expertise and data to launch new sales solutions, services, and data insights to help customers. On March 8, Ritchie Bros. experts, along with a few special guests, will share new industry knowledge and insights through two FREE online discussion panels for the construction and transportation industries, covering macro trends like 'last mile transport' and residential real estate, supply/demand metrics, potential impacts of the new U.S. administration and more.

"Our Inside Edge Live Industry Panels are new way for Ritchie Bros. to connect with customers to share expertise and data to help customers more efficiently and profitably buy and sell equipment and trucks," said Matt Ackley, Chief Marketing Officer and host of the Inside Edge Panels on March 8. "Over the past several years we've improved our data and insight capabilities with RB Asset Solutions and are now supercharging them with Rouse Services as part of the Ritchie Bros. family. Our March 8 panels also include industry guest experts Steve Tam of ACT Research and Michael Vasquez, Executive Board Member of AED and Vice President of MECO Miami."
