VANCOUVER, B.C. (August 20, 2015) – Ritchie Bros. (rbauction.com), the world’s largest industrial auctioneer, will sell more than 200 cranes plus related rigging equipment at unreserved auctions in September and October. Crane highlights include 60+ rough terrain cranes, 40+ all terrain cranes, 35 hydraulic truck cranes, 20 crawler cranes, 10+ carry deck cranes, 10+ tower cranes and more. All items will be sold without minimum bids or reserve prices. Auctions with large selections of cranes include Houston, TX, USA (August 26 – 27); Edmonton, AB, Canada (Sep 9 – 11); Ocaña, Spain (Sep. 16 – 17); Fort Worth, TX, USA (Sep. 23 – 24); Moerdijk, The Netherlands (Sep. 24 – 25); Salt Lake City, UT, USA (Sep. 30); Caorso, Italy (Oct. 1); and Columbus, OH, USA (Oct. 6).

“We have an excellent selection of quality cranes from well-known companies across North America and Europe available in our September and October auctions,” said Terry Dolan, President (USA & Latin America), Ritchie Bros. “We conducted a massive crane auction in Casper, Wyoming in March—selling 38 cranes for US$35+ million. Following that success, a number of top companies contacted us to sell their cranes, making now a great time for buyers to get the cranes they need for upcoming projects. As always, all equipment will be sold without minimum bids or reserve prices.”

Crane sellers include Sterling Crane, Hodges Trucking LLC, Shurtleff & Andrews Corp., and more.

“We’ve been in the crane business for more than 65 years, working on projects throughout the United States. All the equipment we’re selling has been maintained to the highest standards,” said Glen Shurtleff, Vice President, Shurtleff & Andrews Corp. “We have a wide selection of equipment to choose from—from 20-ton pickers to 450-ton crawler cranes, rigging equipment, boom lifts, trucks, tools and more. This equipment was used for our own work and is now ready for a new owner.”
