ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI (November 26, 2015) – Ritchie Bros., the world’s largest auctioneer of farm, construction, and other equipment, will sell more than 1,000 agricultural equipment items at its unreserved auctions in the United States in December 2015. Every item will be sold with no minimum bids or reserve prices, including 275+ tractors, 75+ combines, 50+ headers, 20+ sprayers and much more. The majority of the equipment will sell in five U.S. auctions: Fort Worth, TX (Dec. 2 – 3); Columbus, OH (Dec. 4); Minneapolis, MN (Dec. 9); Tipton, CA (Dec. 15); and St. Louis, MO (Dec. 16). Bids can be placed in person, online at rbauction.com and by proxy. Dozens of agricultural equipment items are also listed for sale on Ritchie Bros.’ online auction marketplace EquipmentOne.com.

“With harvest season over, now is the perfect time for farmers to upgrade their fleet and be ready for the new year, and we have everything they’ll need,” said Terry Dolan, President (USA & Latin America), Ritchie Bros. “We have an amazing selection of late-model farm equipment at several of our U.S. auctions in December—with items coming from dealerships and farmers. All of these auctions are completely unreserved; buyers set the prices, not us or the sellers. We also have a great selection of agricultural equipment listed on EquipmentOne, our online auction marketplace. Buyers can finance their purchases through Ritchie Bros. Financial Services and get great rates and fast approvals.”
