"As a company committed to a more sustainable and equitable future, we are delighted to again be named among the top 100 Most Sustainable Companies by Barron's," said Stephan B. Tanda, Aptar President and CEO. "We are advancing important efforts in our industry that help our employees, customers and community partners create a better future and we believe that being a proactive leader in sustainability is also a key competitive differentiator."

Aptar has made considerable progress advancing key areas of its global sustainability strategy. Recent highlights include:

- Receiving the Platinum level rating from EcoVadis, which places Aptar among the top 1% of the nearly 90,000 companies rated by EcoVadis across all industries
- Sourcing more than 95% of Aptar's global electricity consumption from renewable sources and certifying 65% of Aptar sites as Landfill Free through our internal program
- Receiving an "A-" letter grade on the CDP Climate assessment, as well as an "A-" letter grade on the CDP Water assessment
- Focusing on the eco-design of products, which is aligned to that of Aptar's partners at the Ellen MacArthur Foundation, the World Business Council for Sustainable Development and many other organizations who are working towards a more circular economy

- Serving as an active member of the United Nations Global Compact and the Ellen MacArthur Foundation's Circular Economy 100 (CE100) Network
- After significantly surpassing our original Scope 1 and 2 targets, we validated our revised Scope 1 and Scope 2 reduction target by the Science Based Targets Initiative (SBTi) in early March 2023 to align to the requirements to keep global warming at 1.5° Celsius by 2030. Aptar also has validated SBTi targets for Scope 3 emissions and renewable energy purchases.

This is the sixth year Barron's has published its list of companies with the highest ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) scores. Barron's partnered with Calvert, a leader in ESG investing, to build the list of the most sustainable companies. Calvert evaluated the 1,000 largest publicly traded companies by market value, then ranked each by how they performed for five key constituencies: shareholders, employees, customers, community and the planet. Calvert also reviewed more than 230 ESG performance indicators from seven rating companies, including ISS, MSCI, and Sustainalytics, along with additional data. Calvert also ranked companies in 230 ESG performance indicators including workplace diversity and greenhouse gas emissions.
