"We are honored to once again be included in Barron's 100 Most Sustainable Companies and this is a testament to our steady progress on environmental and social responsibility," said Stephan Tanda, Aptar President and CEO. "We believe that implementing, and advocating for, sustainable practices is essential to our long-term success. Aptar continues to work towards our Science Based Targets, which focus on reducing our environmental impact and cultivating a diverse and inclusive workplace."

This is the fourth year Barron's has published its list of companies with the highest ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) scores. The Calvert Research and Management firm evaluated the 1,000 largest publicly held companies by market value and then looked at top companies in 230 ESG performance indicators.
