Le Point, a renowned French news magazine, joined forces with Statista, an independent data and business intelligence institute based in Germany, to publish a list of companies in France employing more than 500 people, and rank their efforts in the areas of Environment, Social and Governance. Companies were awarded an overall score as well as individual scores for each category. These scores were calculated based on data from both public surveys and Statista’s 20 key indicators which included carbon emissions, the equal pay index and safety.

“We are proud to be recognized in Europe by Le Point and their partner Statista for our contributions towards a more sustainable future,” said Stephan B. Tanda, Aptar President and CEO. “Our commitment to ESG is grounded in diverse and strong governance, science-based environmental targets and Aptar’s social responsibility in the communities where we live and work.”
