(April 3, 2018 -- Newark, N.J.) -- PSEG today announced that Kathleen A. Lally will retire at the end of June from her position as Vice President of Investor Relations for Public Service Enterprise Group (PSEG). Lally joined PSEG as Vice President - Investor Relations in January 2007 and brought with her extensive and diverse Wall Street experience both on the buy side as an investor and on the sell side as an equity research analyst.

“For more than a decade, Kathleen has been a vital link for PSEG to the analyst community,” said Dan Cregg, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, PSEG. “She has been instrumental in leading PSEG’s Investor Relations function and promoting a transparent and open relationship between PSEG executives and members of the financial community. We appreciate all she has done in advancing the IR function in her successful tenure at PSEG, and wish her happiness in her retirement.”

Following Lally’s retirement, Carlotta Chan, currently Manager, Investor Relations, will assume the leadership of PSEG Investor Relations.

“Carlotta will ensure a seamless transition for the IR function, having worked side by side at PSEG with Kathleen since 2010. We look forward to the continued advancement of the IR function with Carlotta, furthering our strong relations with the investment community into the future,” said Cregg.
