

American Water Named Champion of Board Diversity by The Forum of Executive Women for the Seventh Consecutive Year

10/2/2023

Only company honored with distinction; Board is 60 percent female

CAMDEN, N.J.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- American Water (NYSE: AWK), the largest regulated water and wastewater utility company in the U.S., today announced its designation as a Champion of Board Diversity by The Forum of Executive Women for the seventh consecutive year. The Forum of Executive Women, the Greater Philadelphia Region's premier women's organization, honors the top public companies with 30 percent or more women on their respective boards, annually.

"American Water is honored to once again receive recognition as a Champion of Board Diversity by The Forum of Executive Women," said M. Susan Hardwick, President and Chief Executive Officer, American Water. "We are extremely fortunate to have such an engaged, talented and diverse board. It is a model for effective governance that adds true value for all of our stakeholders."

The Forum of Executive Women's annual Women in Leadership Report, which will be released in October and is a collaboration with PwC, provides an annual examination on diversity in the boardrooms and executive suites of the top 100 public companies in the Philadelphia region. The Champions of Board Diversity will be celebrated on Wednesday, October 4 at The Forum's annual Leadership Breakfast at the Loews Hotel.
