McAleer joins AmericanTCS with

25 years of experience in the financial services industry and has held high-level sales and sales leadership roles across firms such as Lincoln Financial Group, Clark Capital Management Group, Charles Schwab and Russell Investments. McAleer's diverse background includes experience in asset management, custody and trading, and qualified plans.

"We are privileged to welcome Mike to our institutional key account team," said Brian Lenz, Chief Sales Officer for AmericanTCS. "I've had the pleasure of partnering with Mike for many years, and I'm excited to have the opportunity to work with him as a teammate. He brings a wealth of experience, a wide network and a proven track record of success that will be instrumental in helping us continue to be the go-to partner in the retirement marketplace. Most importantly, he has an impressive repertoire of dad jokes."

McAleer will be responsible for managing an existing book and growing key accounts across all of the firm's retirement-centric business lines. He will support AmericanTCS partners including retirement plan recordkeepers, TPAs, asset managers and banks.

McAleer added, "I am excited to join AmericanTCS and contribute to its ongoing success. The company's reputation for innovation and excellence in the retirement industry is impressive, and I look forward to working with such a talented team to drive growth and build lasting relationships with our clients."
