Banner|Aetna's Joanne Mizell Honored as One of Arizona's Most Influential Women

9/27/2023

Chief Operating Officer Recognized for Contributions in Health Care Innovation and Community Leadership

PHOENIX--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Banner|Aetna, a joint venture health plan owned by Banner Health and Aetna, a CVS Health company, proudly celebrates Joanne Mizell, chief operating officer, as one of the Most Influential Women in Arizona selected by AZ Big Media. Mizell was chosen from a pool of over 1,900 candidates for her outstanding leadership and contributions to the community.

Mizell has been forging change in the health care industry for more than 30 years. In her role as chief operating officer at Banner|Aetna, Mizell has delivered innovative solutions like an industry-first frictionless billing initiative that makes complicated medical bills consumer friendly, and a novel diabetes reversal program to help members achieve normal blood sugar without medication.

In addition to her work at Banner|Aetna, Mizell is actively involved with the local Arizona community. She serves on the board of the Family Promise of Greater Phoenix and devotes her time to humanitarian and animal advocacy nonprofits.

"Joanne's commitment to Banner|Aetna's mission of making high-quality health care easy and accessible for everyone is inspiring," said Banner|Aetna CEO Tom Grote. "She is a force for change, and on behalf of Banner|Aetna, I want to congratulate her on this well-deserved recognition."

Mizell and others named to this year's list of most influential women in Arizona were recognized at a recent awards dinner in Phoenix. Banner|Aetna extends its gratitude to Mizell for her dedication and leadership and congratulates all 2023 honorees for their achievements.
