FHLB Dallas' Partnership Grant Program Provides 3:1 Match of Members' Donations

DALLAS--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Mississippi community-based organizations received $166,500 from the Federal Home Loan Bank of Dallas (FHLB Dallas) and seven member institutions. A total of $557,250 was awarded to community organizations through its annual Partnership Grant Program (PGP). View the award recipients.

"With its matching funds, our Partnership Grant Program gives our members added leverage to support local nonprofits," said Greg Hettrick, senior vice president and director of Community Investment at FHLB Dallas. "Our members are very supportive of local community organizations, and we are proud to provide funds that help with their endeavors."

Under the program, FHLB Dallas member institutions contribute $500 to $4,000 to a nonprofit, which FHLB Dallas matches at a 3:1 ratio to provide up to $12,000 to the organization per member. The awards help promote and strengthen relationships between community-based nonprofits and FHLB Dallas members.

The following community-based organizations were supported in Mississippi:

- AHA Development (Aberdeen, Mississippi) - $10,000
  - Member: Cadence Bank
- Madison Countians Allied Against Poverty (Canton, Mississippi) - $16,000

- Member: BankPlus
- North Madison County Economic Development Council (Canton, Mississippi) - $4,000
  - Member: Community Bank of Mississippi
- Greenwood-Leflore LEAP Foundation (Greenwood, Mississippi) - $8,000
  - Member: Bank of Commerce
- Christmas In April (Grenada, Mississippi) - $8,000
  - Member: Cadence Bank
- Fuller Center for Housing of Houston, MS (Houston, Mississippi) - $16,000
  - Member: Cadence Bank
- Housing Education and Economic Development (Jackson, Mississippi) - $32,500
