

Viamerica and Kori Global Services Expanded Access of International Remittances in Africa

10/3/2023

MIAMI--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Viamerica Corporation, a licensed, international remittance company, recently expanded its relationship with Kori Global Services to provide international money transfer services to reach all the African countries that Kori serves. Headquartered in Abidjan, Ivory Coast, Kori extends Viamerica's African coverage to Burkina Faso, Cameroon, Senegal, Ivory Coast, Benin, Togo, Mali, Congo (Brazzaville), Gabon, Chad, Central African Republic, and Equatorial Guinea.

Kori is a money transfer company that has built trust and credibility, becoming an internationally preferred payment network of African diasporas. Kori has an extensive network of bank branches, post offices and independent points of sale that provide cash pickup, bank deposit or mobile wallet deposit of the remittance. By partnering with Kori, Viamerica ensures money transfers to African countries are simple, convenient and secure.

"Viamerica provides excellent service and a country-wide network of locations improving the access of our customers to send money home," said Sylvestre Amoakon, Founder and CEO of Kori. "We are excited about Viamerica's significant efforts to expand their network in Africa."

"Kori has been a trusted institution connecting our customers to several banks and locations in Africa with the most competitive fees on the market," said Joseph Argilagos, Executive Chairman and Co-Founder of Viamerica. "By expanding to more locations in Africa, we provide unparalleled service to an increased number of locations for individuals looking for a simple, safe and reliable way to assist their loved ones in Africa."
