Wilmington News Journal Names CSC a Top Workplace for 17th Straight Year

10/9/2023

WILMINGTON, Del.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- CSC has been awarded a Top Workplaces 2023 honor for the 17th consecutive year by The News Journal. This honor makes CSC the oldest, continuous Top Workplace in the United States and the only 17-time winner. The list is based solely on anonymous employee feedback gathered through Energage, LLC, a third-party employee engagement technology partner, and measures various culture drivers, including alignment, execution, and connection.

"Every year we're named a Top Workplace is truly an honor, and it's a reminder of the great things we're able to accomplish as one company," says Kristyn Dilenno, CSC's vice president of global human resources. "Our people each bring their own unique perspectives, experiences, and expertise, and we all share the same commitment to our clients, communities, and one another. It's that commitment that's given us a competitive advantage, driven innovation, and allowed us to fulfill our CSC Promise for more than 120 years. We truly are better together and look forward to all the ways we'll continue to do meaningful work in the years ahead."

"Earning a Top Workplaces award is a badge of honor for companies, especially because it comes authentically from their employees," says Eric Rubino, Energage CEO. "That's something to be proud of. In today's market, leaders must ensure they're allowing employees to have a voice and be heard. That's paramount. Top Workplaces do this, and it pays dividends."
