

COLUMBIA PROPERTY TRUST, INC.

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

Columbia Property Trust, Inc., a Maryland corporation (the “Company”), has adopted this policy to encourage employees of the Company to report to responsible persons possible (i) violations of law, including the securities laws, (ii) accounting irregularities, and (iii) other suspected wrongdoing, including their own, which in any way may affect the Company or the properties owned by the Company. The goal of this policy is to discourage illegal activity and business conduct that damages the Company’s good name, business interests, and its relationships with employees, stockholders, broker/dealers, real estate professionals, suppliers, tenants, and the community at large. The Company encourages any director, officer, employee, or agent of the Company (each an “Affected Person”) who reasonably believes that a Harmful Violation (defined below) has taken place to contact a representative of the Company through one of the methods contained in Section 7. A “Harmful Violation” includes the following:

1. Violations of law which in any way may affect the Company or the properties owned by the Company, including any rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission, federal laws related to fraud against the stockholders of the Company, and the laws and regulations of any jurisdiction in which the Company operates;
2. Violations of the Company’s policies, including the Company’s Code of Ethics, and statutory or other requirements for good corporate governance involving the Company;
3. Improper accounting entries, violations of internal accounting controls or improper auditing matters (including, but not limited to, knowingly providing any false or misleading representation to an auditor) which in any way may affect the Company or the properties owned by the Company;
4. Any other matter which, in the Good Faith (defined below) belief of any Affected Person, could cause harm to the business or public reputation of the Company;
5. Any attempt to conceal a potential Harmful Violation or to conceal evidence of a potential Harmful Violation; or
6. Any Retaliation (defined below) for any report, complaint, allegation or other disclosure made pursuant to this policy (a “Disclosure”).

1. General Policy.

The Company notes that the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 and the Dodd-Frank Act of 2010 provide certain legal protections to employees who provide information in investigations—including internal investigations—into certain types of violations of the securities laws and regulations, or who file proceedings relating to similar violations. Under these laws, the Company and its officers, employees and agents are prohibited from discharging, demoting, suspending, threatening, harassing, or in any other manner discriminating against an employee in connection with the terms and conditions of his or her employment because of any lawful act done by such employee to provide information which such employee reasonably believes constitutes a violation of any rule of the Securities and Exchange Commission or any other provision of federal law relating to fraud against the stockholders of the Company (collectively, “Retaliate” or “Retaliation”).

Accordingly, any Affected Person who, in Good Faith, makes a Disclosure pursuant to this policy with respect to a Harmful Violation or potential Harmful Violation is referred to as a “Whistleblower” and shall be protected from any Retaliation. “Good Faith” means that the employee has a reasonably held belief that the Disclosure made by the Affected Person is true and has not been made for personal gain, for malicious or frivolous reasons, or for any ulterior motive.

2. Purpose of the Policy.

The Company has adopted this policy in order to:

- (a) Encourage Harmful Violations or potential Harmful Violations to be disclosed before they can disrupt the business or operations of the Company, or lead to serious loss;
- (b) Promote a climate of accountability with respect to Company resources, including the employees of the Company; and
- (c) Ensure that no Affected Person should feel at a disadvantage in raising legitimate concerns.

This policy provides a means whereby Affected Persons can safely raise, internally and at a high level, serious concerns and disclose information that the Affected Person believes in Good Faith could cause a Harmful Violation. This policy does not apply to all grievances, such as those related to terms of employment or those concerns that are specifically addressed by existing company policies relating to discriminatory harassment, and any such other grievances not specifically covered by this policy shall be handled in the manner stated in such other existing policies.

3. Affected Persons Protected.

This policy and the related procedures offer protection from Retaliation against Affected Persons, who make any Disclosure in Good Faith with respect to matters that are, or could reasonably give rise to, Harmful Violations.

No such complaint or report shall result in any Retaliation or threat of Retaliation against the Whistleblower by the Company or any officer, employee, contractor, subcontractor, or agent of the Company. Any acts of Retaliation against a Whistleblower shall be treated by us as a serious violation of company policy and could result in discharge.

4. Confidentiality of Disclosure.

The Company will treat all Disclosures by Whistleblowers as confidential and privileged to the fullest extent possible. The Company will maintain the confidentiality of the identity of any Affected Person making a Disclosure under this policy as an investigation of the Disclosure is undertaken. Thereafter, the identity of the Affected Person making the Disclosure will be kept confidential unless (a) such confidentiality is incompatible with a fair investigation, or (b) such disclosure is required by law. In any such instance, the Affected Person making the Disclosure will be so informed in advance of his or her being identified with the Disclosure.

We encourage individuals to put their name to any Disclosure they make as it will aid in the investigation of the Disclosure. However, any Affected Person may make an anonymous Disclosure by completing a Complaint Form in the form attached as Exhibit A to this policy (except for the personal information contained in Section 2) and submitting it anonymously to one of the Designated Recipients set forth in Section 7.1. In responding to an anonymous Disclosure, we will pay due regard to fairness to any individual named in the Disclosure, the seriousness of the issue raised, the credibility of the information or allegations in the Disclosure, and the prospects of an effective investigation and discovery of evidence.

Investigations will be conducted as quickly as possible, taking into account the nature and complexity of the Disclosure and the issues raised therein.

5. Unsubstantiated Allegations.

If an Affected Person makes a Disclosure in Good Faith pursuant to this policy and any facts alleged are not confirmed by subsequent investigation, no action will be taken against the Affected Person as a Whistleblower. In making a Disclosure, all individuals should exercise due care to ensure the accuracy of the information disclosed.

Where alleged facts disclosed pursuant to this policy are not substantiated, the conclusions of the investigation will be made known both to the person who made the Disclosure and to the person(s) against whom any allegation was made in the Disclosure.

6. Follow-Up.

A detailed report of all substantive Disclosures and any subsequent actions taken will be made to the Audit Committee where the Disclosure relates to an issue or matter within its purview. In all other cases, a summary report will be made to the Audit Committee.

The conclusion of any investigation will be communicated to the person or persons against whom the Disclosure is made and to the Affected Person.
