RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Science Applications International Corp. (NYSE: SAIC) was awarded a position on the General Services Administration's Alliant 2 Governmentwide Acquisition Contract (GWAC) to provide information technology support services.

Alliant 2 is an unrestricted multiple-award, indefinite delivery, indefinite quantity contract that has a five-year base period, a five-year option, and a $50 billion ceiling value. SAIC is one of 60 awardees.

“Alliant 2 offers a ‘best-in-class’ solution for IT services for our federal, civilian, and defense customers,” said SAIC Chief Operating Officer Nazzic Keene. “GSA’s approach offers a government-wide solution to provide current, cutting-edge IT services to government agencies. We are proud to be among the companies selected to deliver these critical IT services.”

Alliant 2 GWAC provides flexible access to customized IT solutions from a large, diverse pool of industry partners. Under the contract, SAIC will provide a full range of comprehensive IT services and IT services-based solutions.
