

ASGN Appoints Transformational Leader Sangita Singh to Spearhead

Global Growth and Offshore Expansion

2026-02-25

BANGALORE, India--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- ASGN Incorporated (NYSE: ASGN), a leading provider of IT solutions across the commercial and government sectors, soon to be renamed Everforth, today announced the appointment of Sangita Singh as President, India and International, a newly created role designed to accelerate the Company's global growth strategy and expand its offshore delivery and digital engineering capabilities.

Sangita Singh, President, India and International

Singh's appointment comes at a pivotal moment for ASGN

following its recent announcement of its intent to acquire Quinnox, an agile, results-driven digital solutions provider with a strong offshore delivery footprint in India. Together, the creation of this new leadership role and the Quinnox acquisition underscore ASGN's commitment to building a scaled, world-class global delivery platform to support increasingly complex, technology-driven client needs.

"Sangita is a transformational leader with a proven track record of building and scaling global technology businesses, particularly in India," said Ted Hanson, Chief Executive Officer of ASGN. "As we move into our next phase of growth and expand our offshore delivery capabilities, Sangita's deep industry experience, cross-cultural leadership, and strong reputation in the Indian marketplace make her uniquely suited to this role. Her appointment reflects our long-term strategy to invest in global delivery and position our Company for sustained growth."

Singh brings more than three decades of experience driving growth and innovation at some of the world's largest technology and consulting organizations. Most recently, she served as General Manager of IT and IT Enabled Services at Microsoft India, where she led large-scale growth initiatives focused on AI-enabled partnerships and complex deal execution. She previously held senior leadership roles at IBM, Infosys, and Wipro, where she built and managed multi-billion-dollar businesses and led global teams across AI, cloud, enterprise applications, and industry-focused solutions in healthcare and life sciences.

Well known and highly respected within India's technology and services ecosystem, Singh has been recognized as one of Business Today's 30 Most Powerful Women, named a Young Global Leader by the World Economic Forum, and included among India Today's 50 on Fast Track.

In her role as President, Singh will establish India-based go-to-market operations to serve the explosive growth of global capability centers and accelerate the scaling of ASGN's operations in India. Singh will oversee international expansion and partner with ASGN's Commercial Segment leadership to enhance offshore delivery, strengthen overall go-to-market execution, and expand the Company's ability to deliver large, complex programs for global clients.

"The opportunity to join ASGN at such a formative moment in its global growth journey is incredibly exciting," said Singh. "ASGN is making bold, strategic investments in the future, and I'm thrilled to work with the leadership team to scale our presence in India, expand our go-to-market capabilities, and deliver exceptional value to clients worldwide."

Singh's appointment further strengthens ASGN's leadership team as the Company prepares to transition to the Everforth brand in the first half of 2026. ASGN continues to execute its long-term strategy to expand its AI-led technology and digital engineering solutions with global delivery at scale.

About ASGN Incorporated, transitioning to Everforth

ASGN Incorporated (NYSE: ASGN) is a leading provider of IT solutions for commercial and government clients. In November 2025, ASGN announced its intent to rebrand to Everforth, a new parent brand unifying its six brands — Apex Systems, Creative Circle, CyberCoders, ECS, GlideFast, and TopBloc — under a single identity.

During the transition, ASGN will continue operating under its existing commercial and government brands. Clients, partners, and suppliers can expect a seamless experience, led by the same trusted teams with greater resources and stronger cross-brand collaboration. ASGN's transition to Everforth will take place in the first half of 2026.

Everforth is a leading technology and digital engineering company with six core solution areas: AI and data, cloud and infrastructure, digital engineering, customer experience, cybersecurity, and enterprise platforms. Through proprietary assets, accelerators, and proven expertise, Everforth delivers measurable outcomes that help organizations adapt, innovate, and thrive.

Everforth: Adapt and Thrive.
