

ECS Recognized as a Top Partner with 2025 Elastic Services Partner Award

– AMER

2025-11-17

Company honored as a top services partner for Elastic in the Americas advancing customer success with Elastic Search AI

FAIRFAX, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- ECS, a provider of advanced technology solutions in data and AI, cybersecurity, and enterprise transformation, and an ASGN (NYSE: ASGN Incorporated) brand, received the 2025 Elastic Services Partner Award – AMER from Elastic, the Search AI company. The award was presented to ECS at ElasticON ENGAGE NYC on October 8, 2025.

“The 2025 Elastic Partner Awards – AMER recognize partners who pair deep expertise with a relentless focus on customer success,” said Jason Kimrey, Vice President, Channels & Alliances, AMER, Elastic. Chosen across ten categories, this award recognizes top-performing partners in the Americas who demonstrate the full power of the Elasticsearch Platform to achieve high-impact customer solutions.

“It’s both exciting and a testament to our hard work to see how ECS and Elastic have grown our partnership from our Public Sector roots into the commercial AMER market,” said Steve Hittle, chief information officer at ECS. “This demonstrates just how versatile Elastic and ECS can be in capturing new market segments and creating new offerings that our commercial customers find valuable.”

A global Elastic partner and the 2024 Elastic Services Partner of the Year, ECS has one of the largest teams of Elastic-certified engineers, positioning them among the most highly skilled partners in the ecosystem. This empowers ECS to steer AI innovation throughout a wide range of customer projects. This includes managing one of the world’s largest Elastic environments at the Cybersecurity and Infrastructure Security Agency (CISA). CISA’s Continuous Diagnostics and Mitigation (CDM) Dashboard Ecosystem uses an integrated data mesh to enable real-time threat visibility and intelligence gathering for over 90 federal civilian agencies.

“We are honored to receive the 2025 Elastic Services Partner Award – AMER,” said John Heneghan, president of ECS. “Our deep experience and partnership with Elastic have enabled us to drive truly powerful outcomes for a range of customer initiatives, from CISA’s CDM program to the Army Endpoint Security Solution (AESS), which safeguards over 750,000 endpoints across the Army’s global infrastructure. We look forward to continuing this collaboration as we empower customer missions through innovations in AI.”
