Staffing Industry Growth Drivers

Catalyst For Continued Growth

- An economic slowdown reminds companies of the benefits for using contract labor
- Variable cost structure provides money saving alternative to companies and flexibility to ramp up quickly in periods of expansion
- Aging U.S. population may constrain supply of available workforce
- Healthcare reform may stimulate demand for staffing in the long-term

Recent Market Trends

- U.S. economy continues to grow
- Temporary help penetration (1.8% in Sep ’12) still only slightly above prior trough period of 1.6%\(^1,2\)
- Temp help growth has begun to slowdown; however, primarily in the commercial/light industrial sector. Professional staffing, higher-end skilled labor, has stayed course and is growing faster than overall employment

Potential for M&A Activity

- M&A activity continues to gain traction as large companies and private equity announce more deals
- Escalating access to credit markets may spur appetite for acquisitive growth
- Smaller, private companies may look to partner with larger, well capitalized firms or private equity as activity and valuations increase

Key Investment Highlights

| Large, Attractive End Markets | • The staffing industry is a large market, with estimated total revenues of $114 billion in 2011 and projected to be $122 billion in 2012[^1]
| • Highly skilled temps are in high demand but short supply, with greater resistance to economic cycles, especially in areas like healthcare and highly specialized professional services |
| Strong Position in Critical High-End Skill Sets | • On Assignment (“ASGN” or the “Company”) participates in most attractive sub-segments of staffing: Healthcare, Life Sciences, Locum Tenens and IT/Engineering
| • High-end focus yields higher bill rates, longer assignments and stickier customer relationships
| • Customer diversification enhances revenue visibility and insulates margins
| Attractive Organic and Strategic Growth Opportunities | • Capture operating leverage
| • Accelerate growth of newer practices
| • Execute against strategic five year plan
| Attractive Financial Characteristics | • All segments operate in high demand, high bill rate sub sectors of the broader staffing market, which drives organic revenue growth and stable gross margins
| • Highly scalable front and back office creates operating margin expansion opportunities
| • Low working capital and CapEx requirements result in strong conversion of EBITDA to FCF |
| Experienced Management Team | • Senior management has extensive experience in the staffing sector and a strong track record with public investors
| • Veteran cadre of seasoned industry professionals leading each division |
