Brush Wellman Inc. Announces Price Increase on Alloy Products

CLEVELAND, Oct 25, 2005 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Brush Wellman Inc.’s Alloy Products group announced plans today to increase prices worldwide 8% to 10% on premium performance alloy products, effective with orders placed on November 1, 2005. These price increases are necessary to offset increased costs for energy, raw material costs/adders and other manufacturing supplies.

Brush Wellman Inc. is a wholly-owned subsidiary of Brush Engineered Materials Inc. (NYSE:BW). Through its subsidiaries, Brush Engineered Materials supplies worldwide markets with beryllium products, alloy products, electronic products, precious metal products, and engineered material systems. Around the world, the company's engineered materials can be found in technically demanding end-use products with the telecommunications and computer, automotive electronics, industrial components, optical media, aerospace and defense, and appliance markets.
