

Advance Auto Parts

Policy on Political Activities and Contributions

Team Members, directors and officers of Advance Auto Parts, Inc. (the "Company") are free to contribute to political candidates or otherwise participate in the political process in their individual capacities. However, no Company funds or property may be contributed or loaned to any political party, candidate or organization unless reviewed by the General Counsel to ensure compliance with applicable laws and regulations and authorized in advance by the Chief Executive Officer or President. The General Counsel will maintain documentation of any such contributions. Team Members may not be pressured to support a particular political candidate, party or organization, and Team Members are prohibited from using their personal funds or property to do something that cannot be done with Company resources when acting within the scope of their employment with the Company.

Advance may support legislative issues (not political candidates or parties) which may affect the Company upon approval from the Chief Executive Officer or President, with notification to the General Counsel.

If a Team Member has any questions or concerns regarding this policy, he/she should contact the General Counsel's office.
