Alamos Gold Receives Award for Best Corporate Social Responsibility Practice

Toronto, Ontario (September 16, 2019) – Alamos Gold Inc. (TSX:AGI; NYSE:AGI) (“Alamos” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that the Mexican Center for Philanthropy (Cemefi), the Alliance for Corporate Social Responsibility in Mexico (AliaRSE), and Forum Empresa have named Alamos Gold Best Corporate Social Responsibility Practice 2019 in the category of Connecting with the Community. This award acknowledges the Company’s commitment to corporate social responsibility (“CSR”), highlighting successes with the voluntary relocation of residents from Mulatos to Matarachi. Alamos worked closely with the community, investing in several projects that will provide long-term benefits; including the construction of 21 new homes, a new school, church and medical clinic.

The Technical Evaluation Committee for the Award recognized Alamos’ CSR practices as creative, innovative, and exceeding established standards. Furthermore, the Company’s CSR practices benefit its community stakeholders while complementing successes at its operations.

“We are honored to be receiving this Award for our commitment and leadership in corporate social responsibility in Mexico. As a company, sustainability and corporate social responsibility are core values which are incorporated into activities at all our operations,” said John A. McCluskey, President and CEO.
